COMMUNITY RELATIONS

SAINTS IN THE COMMUNITY

The New Orleans Saints Community Relations Department is committed to supporting the charitable efforts of the club's ownership, players, coaches and staff throughout the Gulf South. This dedication to charitable causes and individuals in need was a defining trait of Tom Benson's 33-year tenure as the franchise's Owner and now that legacy carries on under the leadership of Gayle Benson. As a philanthropic force in the community, the club is committed to exercising its core beliefs and basic expectations of every member of the Saints organization, defined by its participation in initiatives that will have a positive and lasting impact in our community.

RESPONDING TO THE COMMUNITY IN TIMES OF CRISES

The relationship between the Saints and its fans is unique in the world of sports. The team has been the recipient of unqualified support from the community since its inception and welcomes the opportunity to give back – particularly in times of crisis. Donating and raising money as well as providing extensive organizational support following Hurricanes Katrina, Rita, Harvey, the 2010 Gulf Coast Oil Spill, widespread flooding and tornadoes that affected the region in 2016 and the COVID-19 pandemic, the club most recently faced the challenge of supporting the community following Hurricane Ida that battered the Gulf Coast in August, 2021. Almost immediately following the storm, Mrs. Benson made a donation of $1 million to activate the Saints Gulf Coast Renewal Fund, with over $5 million total being raised. With the assistance of the community leaders, the NFL Foundation and the Greater New Orleans Foundation, nonprofit organizations were identified to be beneficiaries that could address the immediate needs of those impacted throughout Louisiana.

In addition to reacting to real-time issues such as natural disasters, the Saints also will continue its commitment to prioritize efforts that build awareness of and support for issues challenging the Gulf South by working to safeguard and promote our wetlands and energy production, as they are critical to our nation's future economic vitality.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO YOUTH & EDUCATION

The New Orleans Saints organization believes in the future of the Gulf South, and understands our community's children are our greatest resource and hope for a stronger region. Our Community Affairs and Youth Programs Departments conduct and assist in events and initiatives focusing on the development and education of our children.

Throughout the year, Saints players, Legends, and staff visit schools and various community centers to stress the importance of education, physical fitness, nutrition, leadership development, character building and time management. The club partners with a variety of organizations including (but not limited to) Boys & Girls Clubs, Special Olympics, Boy and Girl Scouts, United Way, NFL YET Center, Kingsley House, Teach for America, Youth Empowerment Project, and NORD.

SUPPORT AND IMPACT FOR THE ENTIRE COMMUNITY

While supporting youth and education is a daily focus of the club, significant resources are dedicated to enrich the lives of individuals in other areas of need. For the past five years, the Saints 50/50 Charity Raffle's season total jackpot has risen to nearly $1 million, allowing the organization to assist thousands of people across the Gulf South region through the works of benefitting charities. Local and non-profit organizations have received proceeds garnered via fundraisers such as the Saints 5K Kickoff Run and the Caesars Sportsbook Crescent City Classic. Saints ownership, executives and staff members serve on numerous community organization boards and partner with those entities to assist or co-develop appropriate programs with a plethora of organizations including (but not limited to) CADA of Greater New Orleans, American Heart Association, Second Harvest Food Bank, City Park of New Orleans, Saintsgiving at Dryades YMCA, Toys for Tots, Rebuilding Together New Orleans, American Red Cross, Make-A-Wish, Volunteers of America, United Negro College Fund and Bridge House. Each year, millions of dollars are given back to the community by the Saints through the donation of cash, goods and services, media and sponsorship.

Whether through financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances or just lending a helping hand, the New Orleans Saints are there to reciprocate the support the club has received from its community for 56 years.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

The Saints have taken an active role in supporting programming events and advocacy efforts to promote social justice since 2018. Saints Ownership, staff and players have worked towards multiple legislative changes, support of the local public defender's office, as well as supporting programs that empower those impacted by incarceration to successfully re-enter the community, as well as provide support to African-American women

YOUTH PROGRAMS

The New Orleans Saints Youth Programs Department maintains an active presence in the community throughout the year, bringing National Football League excitement to children who may not have the opportunity to experience the thrill of a Saints football game in person. The Saints reach thousands of children through programs such as the Saints Play Football Experience Camps, the Sanderson Farms Chicken High School Skills Showcase, the Saints Experience and the High School 7-on-7 Regional Tournament. The club is also highly involved with all of the NFL's youth football initiatives such as PLAY60, NFL FLAG, and PLAY FOOTBALL MONTH celebrations.

The Saints have continued to champion smarter and safer play for young athletes in partnership with USA FOOTBALL through the Heads Up Football program by hosting Player Safety Clinics, Player/Parent Camps and forums to further educate coaches, parents and players. Across the Gulf Coast, the Saints continue to fully fund Heads Up Football's enrollment fees for every high school in Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi.

The Saints sponsor the Louisiana High School Athletic Association and are working closely with the LHSAA to implement the InSideOut Initiative in Louisiana. This initiative is supported by the NFL Foundation and seeks to transform the current win-at-all-costs culture, where the value is defined by the win-loss record, to a culture that defines and promotes sports as a human growth experience that focuses on the intentional development of educational, social and emotional well-being of each student-athlete.

The club also honors area high school coaches through the Saints NFL High School Coach of the Week program, which provides $1,000 to each coach's respective football programs. In addition, the Saints collaborate with corporate partners to conduct life skills presentations to high schools throughout the city. Topics such as education, work ethic, leadership, and character as well as post-graduation career opportunities are discussed.

The Youth Programs Department is influential in helping to secure thousands of dollars through the NFL Foundation via the Player Matching, Team and Grassroots Grants. Funding received from these grants are distributed to youth and high school football organizations and support field projects throughout the region. The Saints Youth Task Force meets to address issues facing today's youth football programs. These efforts positively impact the growth and direction of football for youngsters in the community.

GAYLE BENSON
OWNER

Gayle Benson provides leadership for the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans. She succeeds her late husband, Tom Benson, who passed away on March 15, 2018, after serving as Owner of the Saints since 1985 and the Pelicans since 2012. The New Orleans native is an accomplished business professional and philanthropist with strong ties to the local community and is dedicated to contributing to the growth and enhancement of the Gulf South region.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson worked together to build championship-level NFL and NBA organizations, housed in state-of-the-art facilities at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, Caesars Superdome and Smoothie King Center, while making a positive impact in the community away from the football field and basketball court as well.

With the Saints franchise under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the team has reached new heights since 2006, when they entrusted Executive-Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis to set the direction for the organization, responding by making important coaching hires and continually supplementing and upgrading the roster through the draft, free agency and trades. Since then, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 168-106 record from 2006-21, featuring ten winning seasons, nine playoff berths, seven division titles, three NFC Championship appearances and the Super Bowl XLIV title. Off-the-field, the Caesars Superdome is in the midst of a multiple-phase enhancement, in addition to periodic renovations at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center to retain its status as one of the most cutting edge practice facilities in the NFL. The Caesars Superdome has been sold out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 and 163 consecutive sellouts for contests played at the facility through 2021. The NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 teams resulted in the Saints being ranked with the highest overall score for Fan Gameday Satisfaction from 2017-19. They secured the highest-overall score for Safety and Security, Overall Arrival Communication and Mobile Ticketing in 2020 and finishing among league leaders in 2021, two seasons when the club was quickly challenged to think out of the box with the safety of its fans, staff and players of tantamount importance. The club has also positioned itself as a leader in the community, assisting with the recovery from several natural disasters as well as the COVID-19 pandemic, while also working to enhance the region as a whole.

In Mrs. Benson's first four seasons of ownership, New Orleans has posted four consecutive winning seasons and three consecutive NFC South division titles (2018-20), reaching the NFC Championship game in the 2018 campaign. No team has matched their 26 road victories since 2018. Their 49 wins (regular season and postseason combined) is tied for second in the NFL during the four-season period. 13 Saints have received a total of 28 Pro Bowl selections and eight players over the past three seasons have received Associated Press All-Pro honors.

Following in the footsteps of her late husband, who played a significant role in the city of New Orleans hosting five Super Bowls during his ownership and wielded extensive influence and respect among fellow NFL owners with a 25-year tenure as Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mrs. Benson has become instrumental with her influence and leadership in important league issues, serving on the Audit, Business Ventures and Hall of Fame Committees and the Social Justice Working Group. She helped the city land Super Bowl LIX to be played in February, 2025, which will mark the 11th time Louisiana and the Crescent City will serve as a host, tying with Miami for the most Super Bowls by a host city. The economic impact of Super Bowl XLVII, played in 2013, which Mr. Benson successfully campaigned for, was $480 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions that the National Football League makes during Super Bowl week that extends for generations. Mrs. Benson is committed to continuing to bring Super Bowls to New Orleans.

Immediately upon Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the former Hornets franchise from the NBA in 2012, construction began on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility to house the entire organization together and the franchise would also be rebranded as the Pelicans. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD scoreboard, which debuted in 2015, along with several additional fan upgrades. Through this commitment, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017, making the city one of just seven current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times. Active in league affairs, Mrs. Benson, serves as a member of the NBA's Labor Relations Committee and was named to the NBA Foundation Board of Directors in 2020. As a board member, she is constantly an advocate for the city of New Orleans and the state of Louisiana. Since her 2020 addition, every distribution by the foundation has benefited New Orleans nonprofits.

On the court, she oversaw a significant overhaul of the Pelicans in 2019 when she hired Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations David Griffin and committed to significant upgrades to the Ochsner Sports Performance Center's basketball facilities. Through the support of these organizational improvements by Mrs. Benson, combined with the 2019 acquisition/2020 re-signing of forward Brandon Ingram, a 2020 NBA All-Star and winner of the league's Most Improved Player award, a trade for guard C.J. McCollum and the hiring of Head Coach Willie Green, all of which led to New Orleans' first playoff berth since 2018, the Pelicans have established a solid foundation.

Community investment and giving back have been hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Saints and Pelicans. This tradition continues under Mrs. Benson's stewardship, sharing her late husband's vision and passion for helping others. She has further enriched the New Orleans community through her support to causes in the health and wellness, cancer care, education, arts and faith-based sectors.

As dedicated corporate citizens, the Saints and Pelicans annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and donations of goods and services. Mrs. Benson's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide since becoming Owner.

Mrs. Benson has always quickly responded and taken action to conditions that affect the local community adversely. With the COVID-19 pandemic and Hurricane Ida providing multiple challenges to the New York area and its citizens since 2020, Mrs. Benson has donated over $2 million, partnering with the Greater New Orleans Foundation to assist local organizations and individuals in need to help the region and its residents recover from these circumstances. In 2020, utilizing the platform of the Saints and Pelicans to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across both the Gulf South and the country, she formed the Social Justice Leadership Alliance. The alliance, with key front office executives and players from both franchises in leadership positions, advocates for issues of change in minority communities.

In 2014, Mrs. Benson was honored by the New Orleans Council for Community and Justice with its Weiss Award, recognizing achievement for exceptional civic and humanitarian contributions. In 2015, the couple were honored by the regional chapter of the Anti-Defamation League with the A.I. Botnick Torch of Liberty Award. In 2018, she and Mr. Benson (posthumously) were honored by two of the city's leading higher education institutions. They received a Dermot McGlinchey Lifetime Achievement Award from Tulane University, honoring those who have demonstrated service, volunteer involvement and commitment to Tulane and their hometown communities and were inducted into the University of New Orleans' Hall of Distinction.

In 2019, Mrs. Benson received several important honors. She was honored by Xavier University of Louisiana with the Sister Maris Stella "Women of Faith" Award and was recognized by the UNCF with the group's MASKED Award for her support of educational opportunities for all. Mrs. Benson was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its Distinguished American Award. The National World War II Museum selected her as an American Spirit Medallion recipient. The Greater New Orleans Foundation honored Mrs. Benson with the organization's Spark Plug Award, given to an individual whose philanthropy in the greater New Orleans community has been exemplary.

In 2021, Mrs. Benson was presented by the University of Holy Cross with its Spes Unica Award. It is the educational institution's highest honor, based on her support of the university's mission to educate both the mind and heart. It was also announced in May that she was the Times-Picayune's 2021 Loving Cup award winner, an honor which has been presented since 1901 to men and women who have performed exemplary service to the community without expecting material recognition.

In addition to serving on the boards of several local educational institutions and the New Orleans Museum of Art, Mrs. Benson also is a member of the Audubon Commission, which oversees the Audubon Nature Institute.

Mrs. Benson has been a longtime trusted and valued member of the local Catholic community, reflecting her deep religious faith. She has worked tirelessly with the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic Charities organization and its umbrella agencies that feature almost 50 programs and three affiliated ministries. These organizations deliver health and human services to the poor and vulnerable in the eight Southeast Louisiana parishes which the Archdiocese serves, as well as food and nutrition services throughout the state. Mrs. Benson began her professional career in 1968 as a manager for a noted New York-based jeweler. She was responsible for overseeing and managing the daily operation of over 40 sales associates. She then branched out into real estate development, which allowed her to successfully integrate her passion for interior design with property management. Her first real estate transaction occurred in 1978 when she purchased a home in New Orleans's Irish Channel and then sold the property eight months later after extensive restoration. She would go on to purchase, manage and eventually sell numerous properties, primarily in the city's Uptown district.

In 1975, Mrs. Benson began a 30-year design industry career, a business where she achieved tremendous success. Throughout the course of her interior design career she was recognized with numerous professional awards and served as an inaugural member on the Louisiana State Board of Licensing for Interior Designers for four years. She directed numerous major design efforts with her clients, including the Caesars Superdome (formerly Louisiana and Mercedes-Benz Superdome), several of the city's most prestigious hotels, local supermarket chains, automobile dealerships, yachts and other businesses.

In 2000, Mrs. Benson worked with the Superdome on renovations to the iconic New Orleans landmark's third and fourth level public spaces, in addition to renovations on select suites. She also owned and developed a commercial real estate building on the corner of Laura and Octavia Streets, a women's clothing private enterprise called "Toujours la Ligne" and a designer's showroom called "Designers Resource" which served as a wholesale location for designers and architects seeking to purchase fabric, wall coverings and accessories. The Men of Fashion Committee recognized Mrs. Benson as one of the "Ten Best Dressed Women in New Orleans" in 1983.

She owns Benson Farm in Paris, Ky, a 1,000-acre farm with nearly 50 horses. As part of her passion for horse racing, she is a member of the Jockey Club of New York. Mrs. Benson also serves as the Owner of four local automotive dealerships (Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans and Mercedes-Benz Sprinter), Benson Tower, Benson Capital Partners, Faubourg Brewing Co., Corporate Realty and as part of a partnership owns the Hyatt Regency New Orleans.

Mrs. Benson was born in New Orleans and grew up in Old Algiers. She began her education in Catholic schools and in 1966 graduated from Martin Behrman High School in Algiers. DENNIS LAUSCHA
PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha, a native New Orleanian, has been a fan of the Saints since he was a young boy. He attended Jesuit High School and received degrees in Business, first from the University of Alabama, followed by an M.B.A. from Loyola University. Starting out his career as a C.P.A, Lauscha worked for a major global financial services firm before his decades long career with the Saints. He first joined the Saints in 1998 as Treasurer, and as a result of his hard work, loyalty and business acumen, Lauscha rose through the executive ranks to serve as Vice President, Senior Vice President and Executive Vice President before reaching his now esteemed post as President since 2012. In his role, he oversees the club's financial operations, government affairs, marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, business intelligence and information technology. He also serves as a representative for both clubs at National Football League and National Basketball Association Owners meetings, also serving as president of the Pelicans franchise.

In addition to his duties with the Saints and Pelicans, the New Orleans native maintains multiple roles within other holdings of Mrs. Benson, maintaining a role in the management of her four local automotive dealerships (Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans, Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans and Mercedes-Benz Sprinter), Corporate Realty and other real estate holdings, GMB Racing, Benson Capital Partners, Faubourg Brewing Co. and other investments.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role as a member of a contingent that has negotiated agreements for both the Saints and Pelicans with the state of Louisiana. These have resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to their playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the areas around them and generated revenue for the state without any new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor and a subsequent extension of the agreement that continues the Saints' long-term commitment to the state. The deal included the purchase and redevelopment of the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Caesars Superdome, with the stadium undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities. Following successful negotiations, the Pelicans have a long-term commitment to the state, and the Smoothie King Center has undergone over $50 million in renovations and improvements.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both the Saints and Pelicans. The Caesars Superdome had state-of-the-art video boards added in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center. Most recently, Lauscha brokered a $450 million agreement with the state that has resulted in a long-term lease extension for the Saints and a multiple-phase transformative renovation of the Caesars Superdome to keep the stadium among the world's elite sports facilities, including field level suites which debuted in 2021 and many seating, suite and concession upgrades. He has played a key role in finalizing 2021 and 2014 ground-breaking naming rights and sponsorship agreements for both teams' playing facilities with Caesars Entertainment and Smoothie King.

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Saints and Pelicans from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a standalone basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, featuring some of the top facilities in professional sports.

Lauscha's committed to help attract major sporting events to New Orleans. He's a key member of the team that actively pursues future Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII, which was played in 2013 and Super Bowl LIX to be played at the Caesars Superdome in February, 2025, which was awarded by the NFL in 2018. After Mr. and Mrs. Bensons' 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017.

Active throughout sports and the community, Lauscha currently serves as a member of the Business Council of New Orleans & the River Region, as a board member of the Audubon Nature Institute and Loyola University New Orleans and as a trustee of the National World War II Museum. Lauscha has completed terms as board president of the Preservation Resource Center, president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of Americam a member of the Blight Transition New Orleans Task Force, the Mayor's Transition Committee, the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee, the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Game Host Committees, the 2012 NCAA Final Four Host Committee, the Loyola University New Orleans School of Business Visiting Committee, the NBA's Team Advisory Council of Presidents and Team CBA Advisory Committee, the NFL's Ticketing Strategy Working Group, the NFL's 100th Anniversary Committee, the NFL's Sports Betting Committee, the Stuart Hall School Board of Trustees and on the New Orleans Museum of Art Board.

Lauscha's dealings with the Saints and Pelicans, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness, when he was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola's College of Business and was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. He was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its 2014 Distinguished American Award. In 2015, Lauscha gave the commencement address to the graduates of the University of New Orleans. In 2016, he was inducted into the Order of West Range for the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation. FOOTBALL

MICKEY LOOMIS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ GENERAL MANAGER

Responsible for the club's entire football operations, Executive Vice President/General Manager Mickey Loomis enters his 21st season in his current position and 23rd with the Saints. He is a veteran of 36 years in the NFL and during his time in New Orleans has been honored with the most prestigious awards presented to a league executive. Yet the most satisfying achievement of Loomis' career has come in helping mold a roster that has produced many of the franchise's finest moments over the last 16 seasons, including the Super Bowl XLIV championship.

Loomis was promoted to general manager in 2002 and earned the additional title of executive vice president later that year. The departments under his direction include coaching, player personnel and scouting, salary cap management, contract negotiations, athletic training, equipment, video and communications.

In 2006 - after being the key figure in the hiring of Head Coach Sean Payton, the signing of QB Drew Brees and essentially rebuilding a team that would advance to the NFC Championship – Loomis was voted the NFL Executive of the Year by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers of America. He was also honored by The Sporting News as the George Young Executive of the Year, an award voted on annually by NFL front-office executives and owners.

Loomis has continued to build on the success of 2006, highlighted by ten winning seasons, nine postseason appearances, seven division titles, three NFC Championship game berths and the Super Bowl victory. Over the past 16 years, he's brought aboard a group of players who have played a key role in New Orleans posting a 168-106 overall record through a combination of the draft, free agency and trades. He's also presided over the club's ability to retain their core players, re-signing significant contributors to long-term contracts. This past offseason, Loomis led an extensive head coaching search for the organization to lead the Saints into the future. On February 8, Dennis Allen was promoted from defensive coordinator and hired as the Saints' 17th head coach in franchise history.

While his responsibilities have grown during his Saints tenure, Loomis has been a key figure in the highest management circle of the organization since arriving in 2000. Loomis joined the club as director of football administration, a post he held until 2002, handling contract negotiations, managing the salary cap and coordinating different areas of the football operations.

In 2005, Loomis helped steer the club through unprecedented challenges for an NFL team. He calmly guided the staff and players through a sudden evacuation from New Orleans in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, in addition to several moves of the club's base of operations.

EVP/GENERAL MANAGER

Since 2003, Loomis has overseen four extensive renovations of Saints headquarters that have added an indoor practice facility, new weight room and cafeteria and completely renovated coaches and player personnel offices, meeting rooms, medical/rehab areas and locker rooms, giving the club one of the NFL's top training complexes in the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

Prior to arriving in New Orleans, Loomis spent 15 years with the Seattle Seahawks, including as executive vice president from 1992-98. He joined the Seahawks in October, 1983, was promoted to vice president/finance in 1990 and to Executive Vice President in 1992.

A native of Eugene, Ore., Loomis has a degree in accounting from the University of Oregon and a Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Wichita State University.

Married to Melanie, Loomis has four children: Alex, Katherine, Sam and Lucy.

DENNIS ALLEN
HEAD COACH

Dennis Allen was named the 17th head coach of the New Orleans Saints franchise on Feb. 8, 2022. The appointment brings Allen's tenure in New Orleans full circle as he has been a member of the team's coaching staff for 12 seasons.

Now in his 27th year in coaching and 21st in the NFL, Allen has played for, coached with and learned from some of the best coaches in all of football. He was recruited to play at Texas A&M by R.C. Slocum and in the NFL he has honed his skills on the staff of Super Bowl XLIV champion head coach Sean Payton for 12 seasons and also for Super Bowl participants John Fox and Dan Reeves.

Allen was promoted to head coach after spending the past six and a half seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Saints, a time of prosperity when the team has enjoyed five consecutive winning seasons and also captured four straight NFC South division titles from 2017-20. During his tenure as an assistant under Payton in New Orleans (2006-10, 15-21), Allen has been part of staffs that have qualified for the playoffs seven times, captured the NFC South division title six times, reached the NFC Championship game three times and won the Super Bowl XLIV Championship.

Allen's defenses have ranked in the top ten in yards per game and in the top five in opponent points per game each of the past two seasons. During his 16 seasons as a position coach, defensive coordinator and head coach, he has coached ten players to a total of 21 Pro Bowl selections.

In 2021, Allen's defensive unit boasted two Pro Bowl selections (defensive end Cameron Jordan and cornerback Marshon Lattimore) and one Associated Press All-Pro selection (linebacker Demario Davis), ranked first in the NFL in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (43.5), second in opponent first downs (304) and opponent rushing first downs (84), fourth in scoring defense (19.7 points per game), opponent net yards per play (5.08) and run defense (93.5 yards per game), seventh in total defense (318.2 net yards per game) and eighth in sacks (46). New Orleans' current streak of 22 regular season/postseason contests without allowing a 100-yard rusher is the longest in the NFL. With 25 takeaways and a plus-seven turnover ratio, Allen's defense was instrumental in leading the Saints to their fifth straight winning season. Allen handled Head Coach Sean Payton's duties in a December 19 9-0 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as Payton was sidelined due to COVID-19 protocols.

In 2020, the Saints defense boasted one of the league's top units, finishing tied for first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in opponent net yards per game (310.9) and opponent rushing yards per game (91.3), fifth in opponent net passing yards per game (217.0) and opponent points per game (21.1) and eighth in sacks (45). The 139 road points given up on the road by New Orleans were the fewest in the NFL and the third-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game regular season schedule in 1978. New Orleans did not allow a 100-yard rusher until Week 14 of the season, marking an NFL record of 55 games (regular season/postseason combined) of not giving up 100 yards to an individual.

The 2019 Saints ranked third in the league in sacks, recording 51 takedowns and finished fourth in run defense at 91.3 yards rushing per game. The sack total was the highest for the Saints since 2001. The 2019 Saints also ranked sixth on third down (34.8 percent) and 11th in total defense (333.1 yards per game). With two Pro Bowl starter selections on defense – Jordan and Lattimore and one AP first-team All-Pro – Davis – the Saints had two contests where they did not surrender a defensive touchdown for the first time since 2000. Jordan finished with a career-high 15.5 sacks, ranked third in the NFL and tied for the fourth-highest total in franchise history, also earning All-Pro honors. Davis filled up the stat sheet with a team-high 111 tackles, four sacks, one interception and a career-high 12 passes defensed.

In 2018, the Saints boasted the second-best run defense in the NFL, allowing just 80.2 yards per game and 3.6 yards per carry. His defense also collared 49 sacks, which tied for fifth in the league. The New Orleans defense held its opponents to 20 points or less in ten games in 2018 and had a six-game streak of keeping opponents under 20 for the first time since 2000. Jordan was selected to the Pro Bowl as an AP All-Pro in a season where he posted 12 sacks. On the interior, defensive tackle Sheldon Rankins posted eight sacks in a breakout campaign, the most takedowns by a Saints interior defender since 2000. Davis, in his first season with the club, became only the fourth player in Saints history to record 110 tackles and five sacks in a season. Lattimore led the team with five regular season takeaways and added two more in the club's postseason win over Philadelphia.

In 2017, Allen coordinated a Saints defense that finished third in the league in interceptions (20), tied for seventh in sacks (42) and ranked tenth in opponent points per game (20.4 ppg.) after ranking 31st in 2016. Away from home, New Orleans surrendered only 18.3 points per game, tied for sixth in the NFL, with their 146 road points given up tied for the fifth-lowest total by the club since the start of a 16-game schedule in 1978. Allen oversaw a defense that featured first-team All-Pro Jordan who posted 13 sacks and Lattimore, who led rookies with five interceptions and garnered AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, as both defenders earned Pro Bowl trips. Lattimore was the second rookie under Allen's tutelage to capture league Rookie of the Year honors. Rookie safety Marcus Williams, the club's second round draft pick, joined Lattimore as a PFWA All-Rookie selection, tying for second among league rookies with four picks.

In 2016, a young Saints defensive unit took several strides in the right direction, surrendering only 90.6 rushing yards per game over the final 13 weeks of the season, ranked sixth in the NFL over that period. In fact, New Orleans allowed under 100 yards rushing in eight games on the season, the fewest in a single season since they gave up seven in 2013. Jordan led the team with 7.5 sacks. Linebacker Craig Robertson started all 15 games he appeared in and filled up the stat sheet with a team-high and career-high 131 tackles, one sack, one interception, five passes defensed and two fumble recoveries.

After starting the 2015 season as the club's senior defensive assistant, Allen assumed coordinator duties in Week 11. As New Orleans rallied to win three of their final four contests, Allen's unit contributed to finishing strong as the defense surrendered 35.1 total net yards per game below the overall season average, including 25.1 fewer yards per game in stopping the run. New Orleans also held opponents to a season-low 17 points in two of the final four contests. Jordan was selected to his second Pro Bowl, as he recorded double-digit sacks (10) for the second time in his career.

Allen served as the head coach of the Oakland Raiders from 2012-14. In his second season, he guided a team that made significant improvement in several areas. Offensively, the Raiders ranked 12th in the NFL in rushing, improving 16 spots in league rankings from 2012 and sixth in yards per rush (4.6), improving 21 places in league rankings despite starting an NFL-high eight offensive line combinations due to injury. The defense replaced nine starters, yet improved in several categories. The defense recorded 38 sacks, 13 more than 2012, and tied for second in the NFL with 15 different players getting to the quarterback. The rush defense improved five spots from 18th in the NFL in 2012 to 13th in 2013, as they limited opposing offenses to just five runs of 20-or-more yards, tied for the fewest in the league, and kept opponents to less than two yards per carry three times. On special teams, the Raiders moved from the NFL's bottom-third to first overall in opponent gross punting (41.7), ranked third in opponent net punting (37.0) and fourth in opponent kickoff returns (20.4).

Allen coached the first four games of the 2014 season for the Raiders, during which he helped usher in a pair of rookies that went on to enjoy impressive first-year campaigns in Quarterback Derek Carr and linebacker Khalil Mack. The club's pass defense ranked fourth in the NFL.

In 2011, Allen served as defensive coordinator of the Denver Broncos. He led a defense that helped the Broncos win the AFC West division crown and advance to the AFC Divisional round with an AFC Wild Card game victory. The Broncos improved 12 spots over the previous year in overall defensive ranking and bettered their points allowed eight spots. The defense produced four Pro Bowl selections as rookie linebacker Von Miller joined cornerback Champ Bailey, safety Brian Dawkins and defensive end Elvis Dumervil on the AFC squad. Miller set what was the team's rookie record with 11.5 sacks en route to AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and Dumervil also thrived under Allen, rebounding from injury to register 9.5 takedowns. The Broncos' 41 sacks as a team marked the unit's most since 2000.

During Allen's previous five-year tenure in New Orleans, he first served as assistant defensive line coach (2006-07) before being promoted to secondary coach (2008-10).

He was a part of a defensive coaching staff that engineered significant improvement from 2009-10, when the club went 24-8 in the regular season, qualified for the playoffs both times and captured Super Bowl XLIV. Under Allen's direction in 2010, the Saints allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, while New Orleans ranked fourth in both opponent net yards per game (306.3) and pass defense (193.9 ypg.) and fifth in opponent third down efficiency (34.5 pct.). Safety Roman Harper was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl, posting 100 tackles and three sacks, and cornerback Jabari Greer recorded two interceptions with one brought back for a touchdown.

In 2009, Allen tutored a secondary that played a key role in helping the Saints to the club's first Super Bowl victory. A revamped unit accounted for an NFL-high five interception returns for touchdowns and totaled 21 picks with two of the four starters being selected to the Pro Bowl. Opposing quarterbacks managed a 68.6 passer rating, ranked third in the NFL. Greer returned one pick for a touchdown. Harper led the unit with a career-high 127 tackles and added 1.5 sacks and two forced fumbles while being selected to his first Pro Bowl. Cornerback Tracy Porter picked off quarterback Brett Favre and Peyton Manning in the fourth quarter in consecutive postseason contests, with his famous Super Bowl XLIV interception being brought back for a touchdown.

While serving as assistant defensive line coach from 2006-07, Allen helped develop a unit that ranked as one of the defense's strengths. During that stretch, the front four combined for 49.5 sacks, 10 forced fumbles and 10 recoveries. Defensive end Will Smith was voted to his first Pro Bowl in 2006, posting a club-best 10.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

Allen joined the Saints after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Falcons, where he spent his final two years as defensive assistant/quality control with an emphasis on working with the defensive line. Over the previous two seasons, he was in charge of defensive quality control while helping tutor the secondary.

Over his last two years in Atlanta, the Falcons' defense was paced by the play of the front four. In 2004, Atlanta led the NFL for the first time in club history with 48 sacks and the unit sent defensive end Patrick Kerney to the Pro Bowl. In 2005, defensive tackle Rod Coleman represented the club in the Pro Bowl and the Falcons notched 37 sacks.

In 2002, Allen's first year with the Falcons, he assisted in coaching the defensive backfield. Atlanta improved to 16th against the pass after ranking 30th the year before, and tied for third in the NFL with 24 interceptions.

Allen worked as the secondary coach for the University of Tulsa (2000-01) before heading to the NFL. Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Allen was on the coaching staff for four years (1996-99) at his alma mater, Texas A&M, as a graduate assistant working primarily with the school's secondary under Slocum.

A native of Hurst, Texas, Allen earned four letters for Texas A&M as a safety from 1992-95 and started the final 21 games of his career. A highlight was his fourth-quarter interception that clinched an 18-9 victory over Texas in 1993, sending the Aggies to their third-straight Cotton Bowl. He collected Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Week honors after intercepting two passes in a 36-14 win over Oklahoma in 1994.

Allen was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Buffalo Bills and competed in their training camp in 1996. Allen's late father, Grady, played at Texas A&M and was a linebacker for the Falcons from 1968-72. Allen and his wife Alisson have a daughter, Layla and a son, Garrison.

PETE CARMICHAEL
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Pete Carmichael's in his 14th season as New Orleans Saints offensive coordinator after tutoring the quarterbacks his first three years with the club.

Throughout this 16-year period, he has been a key figure in the planning and preparations of an offensive attack that has been ranked first in the National Football League in yardage in six seasons and in the top ten each campaign from 2006-19. During this period of Carmichael's tenure on the New Orleans coaching staff, the club's 14-year streak of finishing in the top 10 in offense was the third-longest since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. Additionally, quarterback Drew Brees, who retired following the 2020 season, was named to the Pro Bowl 12 times, while becoming the league's all-time leader in completions and passing yardage.

Despite the New Orleans offense being limited by significant injuries at quarterback, the skill positions and the offensive line in 2021, New Orleans managed to finish 19th in the NFL in scoring, reaching outputs of at least 30 points five times. Despite the impacts of multiple lineups, New Orleans was tied for the sixth-fewest turnovers (18) in the league. Through the first eight weeks of the season, Jameis Winston posted a 5-2 record as a starter and ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in touchdown passes (14), touchdown percentage (8.7) and passer rating (102.8) before suffering a season-ending knee injury in an October 31 win over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Due to Winston's injury, Carmichael was forced to prepare four starting quarterbacks. Taysom Hill won four of his five starts, while rushing for 374 yards to rank second on the team with a club-best five rushing touchdowns, passing for four more. Trevor Siemian closed out important divisional victories over Tampa Bay and Atlanta following injuries to Winston and Hill. Running back Alvin Kamara was selected to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl as he led New Orleans in rushing and receiving for the second consecutive season, carrying 240 times for 898 yards and four touchdowns, while grabbing 47 passes for 439 yards and five scores, for a club-best 1,337 yards from scrimmage despite missing four games (knee). At wideout, Marquez Callaway and Deonte Harris made significant progress. Callaway posted 46 receptions for a team-high 698 yards (15.2 avg.) and a club-best six touchdowns. Harris posted career-highs in receptions (36), receiving yardage (570) and touchdown grabs (four), while ranking seventh in the NFL in yards per reception (15.8).

In 2020, Carmichael guided a Saints offense that ranked No. 6 in the NFL in rushing offense with 141.6 yards per game and had a league-best 30 rushing touchdowns, a team record and tied for the sixth-highest total in NFL record books, en route to a 12-4 record and the team's fourth consecutive NFC South championship. The Saints also finished fourth in the NFL in points per game (30.1) and New Orleans quarterbacks threw only eight interceptions, tied for the fourth-lowest total in the league. Brees completed 275-of-390 passes (70.5%) for 2,942 yards with 24 touchdowns, only six interceptions and a 106.4 passer rating, ranked first in the NFL in fourth quarter passer rating (128.7), second in completion percentage and sixth in passer rating. Also under Carmichael's tutelage, Kamara, turned in a breakout campaign, leading the NFL with a club-record 21 touchdowns, while carrying 187 times for a career-high 932 yards (5.2 avg.) with 16 touchdowns. He led all running backs in receiving with a career-high and team-best 83 receptions for 756 yards (9.1 avg.) with five touchdowns, finishing third in the league with a career-high 1,688 total yards from scrimmage. Kamara, left tackle Terron Armstead and guard Andrus Peat were named to the Pro Bowl, while Kamara and right tackle Ryan Ramczyk were selected second-team Associated Press All-Pro.

In 2019 under Carmichael's guidance, the Saints set an NFL record with the fewest turnovers (8) in NFL history as they finished the regular season 13-3 and captured their third consecutive NFC South Division championship. In addition to the NFL record for the fewest turnovers, the Saints finished tied for third in the league in points per game (28.6), ranked sixth in total yards per play (5.9) and seventh in net passing yards per game (265.3) despite Brees being sidelined for five games (thumb). While Brees completed 281-of-378 passes for 2,979 yards with 27 touchdowns, only four interceptions and a career-high 116.3 passer rating, Carmichael and the offensive staff also prepared Teddy Bridgewater, who posted a 5-0 record as the starter and completed 133-of-196 passes (67.9%) for 1,384 yards with nine touchdowns, only two interceptions and a 99.1 rating. Wide receiver Michael Thomas set the NFL's receiving record, posting 149 receptions for a franchise-record 1,725 yards and nine touchdowns and was selected as Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year and as an AP first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter for the second straight season. Kamara became only the second Saint to have 1,300 total yards from scrimmage in three consecutive seasons, the first to do so in his first three campaigns, as he also became the first Saint to be named to the Pro Bowl in his first three seasons. Tight end Jared Cook led his position in the league in yards per catch and ranked second in touchdown receptions, as he posted 43 catches for 705 yards (16.4 avg.) and nine scoring grabs, snagging a Pro Bowl berth. The Saints offensive line surrendered only 25 sacks, tied for the third-lowest total in the league, sending Armstead, Peat and guard Larry Warford to the Pro Bowl, while Ramczyk was an AP first-team All-Pro.

In 2018, Carmichael guided an offense that finished third in the NFL in points per game (31.5) en route to a 13-3 record and a NFC South title for the second straight season. The Saints finished tied for third in the league with the fewest giveaways (16), ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (126.6), eighth in total offense (379.2) and led the NFL in rushing touchdowns (26). Brees finished the season surpassing his prior NFL record for completion percentage (74.4), leading the league with a career-high 115.7 passer rating to go along with 32 touchdowns and only five interceptions in a season when he became the league's all-time completions and passing yardage leader. Also under Carmichael's tutelage, Kamara ranked seventh in the NFL in total yards from scrimmage with a club-best 1,592 yards and ranked second in the league with 18 touchdowns, which tied the franchise-best. Thomas shattered what was the club's receptions and receiving yardage records with a league-best 125 grabs for 1,405 yards and nine touchdowns. Brees (second-team) and Thomas (first-team) were AP All-Pros in addition to being selected as Pro Bowl starters. The offensive line surrendered only 20 sacks for the second consecutive season, the league's second-lowest total. Armstead, Peat, Warford and center Max Unger were named to the Pro Bowl, while Ramczyk was an AP second-team All-Pro.

In 2017, Carmichael coordinated a balanced offense that finished second in the National Football League (391.2 ypg.), with the Saints the only club to be ranked in the top five both in passing (fifth-261.8) and rushing (fifth-129.4). The Saints also finished first in the NFL in yards per play (6.3), passing yards per play (8.1), fourth down efficiency (80.0%) and yards after the catch (2,401). Brees set the NFL single-season record for completion percentage (72.0%), completing 386-of-536 passes for 4,334 yards and 23 touchdowns and a 103.9 passer rating. Running back Mark Ingram set career-highs with 1,124 yards rushing, 12 rushing touchdowns, 58 receptions and 1,540 total yards from scrimmage. Kamara set a league record for rookie running backs with 826 receiving yards on 81 receptions and five touchdowns, while he led the NFL by averaging 6.1 yards per carry on 120 carries for 728 yards with eight touchdowns, as he led the club with 1,554 total yards from scrimmage and was selected by the AP as NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and as a second-team All-Pro (flex). The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Ingram and Kamara was the second-most by a running back duo since the start of a 16-game season in 1978. Thomas posted 104 receptions for 1,245 yards. The 4,339 combined total yards from scrimmage by Ingram, Kamara and Thomas, was the highest total by a skill position trio in club history. The offensive line allowed just 20 sacks, second-fewest in the NFL, even though they had to open with six different combinations. Brees, Ingram, Kamara, Thomas and Warford were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2016, the Saints offense ranked first in the NFL (426.0 ypg.), with the club also finishing first in passing offense (317.1 ypg.), third down efficiency (48.6), first downs (395) and yards after catch (2,439). The club posted the third-highest scoring season in club history, ranking second in the NFL (29.3 ppg.). The team's 6,816 total yards gained on the season was the seventh-highest total in league history. With Thomas and wide receiver Brandin Cooks each recording 1,000-yard receiving seasons, Ingram posting a 1,000-yard rushing season and Brees reaching 5,000-yards passing, the New Orleans offense became the second one in NFL history that featured a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers, joining the 2013 Denver Broncos. Brees reached 5,000 passing yards for an NFL-record fifth time while his passing yardage total (5,208) was the second-highest in his career and the fourth-highest of all-time, leading the league for an NFL-record seventh time. He also set an NFL single-season record for completions (471), as he was named to the Pro Bowl. Ingram ran for 1,043 yards, becoming the first 1,000-yard rusher in club history since 2006 (Deuce McAllister). Cooks (1,173) and Thomas (1,137) each eclipsed 1,100 yards receiving with Thomas setting the team single-season rookie record for receptions, receiving yardage and receiving touchdowns. Thomas finished the season leading all NFL rookies in all three categories with the receptions total second all-time for a rookie behind Anquan Boldin's 101 in 2003.

In 2015, Carmichael coordinated an offense that finished second in the NFL (403.8 ypg.), with the club finishing first in net passing yards per game (310.6), third down efficiency (47.7%) and first downs (381). Brees threw for an NFL-high 4,870 yards and 32 touchdowns with a 101.0 rating despite missing one game. Despite being sidelined the final four games, Ingram had a team-high 1,074 total yards from scrimmage. Wideouts Cooks and Willie Snead IV enjoyed breakout seasons. Cooks led the team in all three major receiving categories with 84 grabs for 1,138 yards and nine touchdowns. Snead secured a roster spot and made 69 catches for 984 yards and three touchdowns. Tight end Benjamin Watson set career-highs with 74 grabs for 825 yards, while tying a career-best with six touchdown receptions.

In 2014, Carmichael led an offense that finished first in the NFL in net yards per game (411.4), third down efficiency (48.3%) and first downs (395). Brees tied for the NFL lead in passing yardage (4,952). He also finished first in the NFL in completions (456), second in completion percentage (69.2%) and tied for fifth in touchdown passes (33). Tight end Jimmy Graham led the team in both receiving and touchdowns with 85 catches for 889 yards and ten touchdowns and Ingram led the team in rushing yards (964), total yards from scrimmage (1,109) and rushing touchdowns (nine), which was tied for third in the NFL. Four offensive Saints made the Pro Bowl: Brees, guard Jahri Evans, Graham and Ingram.

In 2013, the offense finished fourth in net yards per game (399.4), second in passing offense (307.4 ypg.), third in third down conversion percentage (43.9%), fourth in first downs (359) and second in yards after the catch (2,576). Brees, Evans, Graham and guard Ben Grubbs were selected to the Pro Bowl. Brees finished near the top of the NFL in virtually every passing category, completing 446-of-650 (68.6%) passes for 5,162 yards with 39 touchdowns and a 104.5 rating. Graham enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons for a tight end in NFL history, recording 86 receptions for 1,215 yards with a franchise-record 16 touchdowns. The 2013 Saints were also only the fifth NFL team to have four players with 65 or more catches (Graham-86, running back Pierre Thomas-77, wide receiver Marques Colston-75 and running back Darren Sproles-71), as New Orleans did so for the second consecutive season.

In 2012, Carmichael called plays for an offense ranked second in the NFL (410.9 ypg.) and third in the league in scoring (28.8 ppg.). The Saints also compiled top-five NFL rankings in red zone touchdown percentage (68.4%), third down conversion rate (44.0%) and first downs (352), supported by a line with two Pro Bowl selections (left tackle Jermon Bushrod and Evans) that surrendered only 26 sacks, tied for third-lowest in the NFL. Brees threw for 5,177 yards and tossed 43 touchdowns, both league-bests. The wideout duo of Colston and Lance Moore each reached 1,000 yards.

In 2011, the Saints produced some of the best offensive numbers in league history as the team shattered several NFL and team records. After Head Coach Sean Payton suffered a leg injury in Week Six, Carmichael took over play-calling duties. New Orleans set NFL records in completion percentage (71.3%), net passing yardage (5,347) and first downs (416) that have since been broken, while the marks for total net yards (7,474), third down conversion rate (56.7%) and fewest fumbles (6) still stand. They also set a team mark and led the league in third down conversions (118). New Orleans finished with 547 points, then the fourth-highest total in NFL history, and scored at least 45 points in four regular season games and one postseason contest, including three straight outputs of at least 45. Brees enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons by a signal-caller as he completed 468-of-657 passes (71.2%) for 5,476 yards, 46 touchdowns and a 110.6 rating, breaking NFL records for yardage (since broken), completions, 300-yard passing games (13) and completion percentage (since broken). Graham had 99 receptions for 1,310 yards with 11 touchdowns. A running game ranked sixth in the NFL flourished behind an offensive line that featured three Pro Bowl selections (Bushrod, Evans and guard Carl Nicks), in addition to Brees and Graham. In 2010, the Saints finished third in the NFC and sixth in the NFL after averaging 372.5 yards of total offense, finishing third in the league in passing. The unit converted 48.8% of their third down conversions and ranked fifth in the NFL with 351 first downs.

In 2009, Carmichael's first season with his new title, the Saints continued to compile impressive offensive numbers. The Saints finished in the top five in seven offensive categories, while also racking up an NFL-best 510 points. At least 45 points were scored four times, a fifth time in the postseason, with four straight outputs of at least 30. The Saints ranked first in the league with 6,461 net yards, then third-best in club history. The Saints' 348 first downs was the second-best total in league rankings. The Saints also finished ranked sixth in the NFL in rushing with 131.6 yards per game on 4.5 yards per carry. The offense continued to flourish in the postseason, averaging 35.6 points per game and scoring eight-of-nine times inside the red zone. Brees keyed the run, completing 70.6 percent of his passes and throwing eight touchdowns with a 117.0 passer rating. He was selected the Super Bowl XLIV MVP, as he led the Saints back from a ten-point deficit, completing 18 of his last 19 passes and engineering the fourth quarter game-winning drive.

In 2008, Carmichael's title was quarterbacks/passing game – with duties that included assisting in pass routes, protections and quarterback responsibilities. He tutored the signal callers his first three seasons with the club. In 2008, the offense went on to rank No. 1 in the NFL in passing, and Brees threw for 5,069 yards and was selected as AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year.

Carmichael worked closely with Brees since both arrived in New Orleans from San Diego in 2006 through his retirement following the 2020 season, a period when virtually all of the franchise's passing records fell. Brees led the NFL or tied for the lead in passing yardage an NFL-record seven times, set the league record for completion percentage four times and threw for a club-record 491 touchdowns over 15 seasons.

Carmichael brings the perspective of having a wide range of coaching experiences, including working with nearly every position group on offense. With the Chargers, he assisted wide receivers coach James Lofton for an offense that ranked tenth in the NFL in 2004 and 2005. Carmichael joined the Chargers in 2002 and served as offensive assistant/quality control coach until being promoted.

For his first two NFL positions, Carmichael was a quality control coach for Washington in 2001, and in 2000, he was the tight ends coach/offensive assistant for Cleveland. From 1995-99, Carmichael was the quarterbacks coach at Louisiana Tech, and during his tenure the signal-callers broke almost every school passing record. He began his coaching career as the assistant offensive line coach at the University of New Hampshire in 1994, with the Wildcats winning the Yankee Conference championship.

Born Oct. 6, 1971 in Framingham, Mass., Carmichael attended Medway (Mass.) High School where he played football and baseball. He was a four-year baseball letterman at Boston College. As a senior, Carmichael was a team captain and Most Valuable Player. He graduated with a degree in mathematics in 1994. Growing up in a football family, his late father, Pete Carmichael Sr., was a football coach with more than 40 years of coaching experience at the high school, college and NFL levels, including 18 years at Boston College and nine years with the Jacksonville Jaguars (1995-99), Browns (2000) and Chicago Bears (2001-03).

COACHING CAREER: New Hampshire, 1994; Louisiana Tech, 1995-99; Cleveland Browns, 2000; Washington, 2001; San Diego Chargers, 2002-05; New Orleans Saints, 2006-.

RONALD CURRY

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/ QUARTERBACKS COACH

Ronald Curry, who is in his 17th season overall in the National Football League and his seventh as an assistant coach with the Saints, is one of the top offensive minds on New Orleans' coaching staff. After working primarily with the wide receivers his first five seasons with the club, the former college signal-caller will serve as quarterbacks coach for the second season, while adding the role of passing game coordinator. In Curry's first season tutoring the quarterbacks, Jameis Winston posted a 5-2 record as a starter and ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in touchdown passes (14), touchdown percentage (8.7) and passer rating (102.8) through the first eight weeks before suffering a season-ending knee injury in an Oct. 31 victory over Tampa Bay. Due to Winston's injury, Curry was forced to prepare four starting signal-callers. Taysom Hill won four of his five starts, while rushing for 374 yards to rank second on the team with a club-best five rushing touchdowns, passing for four more. Trevor Siemian closed out important divisional victories over Tampa Bay and at the Atlanta Falcons following injuries to Winston and Hill.

In 2020, Curry held the title of wide receivers coach for the second season with the club, focusing on the position group in his first four years in New Orleans. Curry helped guide the position group through injuries to several players including Michael Thomas. Emmanuel Sanders led the Saints wideouts with 61 receptions for 726 yards and five touchdowns. Tre'Quan Smith, under Curry's guidance, worked through injuries to record four touchdown receptions, adding two more scoring grabs in the NFC Divisional Playoff.

In 2019, Curry helped Thomas shatter the NFL's receptions record and club receiving yardage records as he posted 149 receptions for 1,725 yards and nine touchdowns as he was selected Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year. He was selected as an AP first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter for the second consecutive season.

In 2018, Thomas recorded a NFL-best 125 grabs for 1,405 yards and nine touchdowns. He also developed third-round pick Smith, who was named NFL Rookie of the Week after a ten reception, 157-yard, one touchdown performance in Week 11.

In his three years with the San Francisco 49ers prior to coming to New Orleans, Curry served as wide receivers coach in 2015 and as an offensive assistant working with the wideouts from 2013-14. In 2015, Anquan Boldin recorded at least 65 receptions for the fourth consecutive season and Torrey Smith led the National Football League in yards per catch (20.1). From 2013-14, Boldin became the first player in 49ers history to reach 1,000 receiving yards in each of his first two seasons with the team and the first 49ers receiver to eclipse the mark in back-to-back seasons since Terrell Owens from 2002-03.

Prior to joining the 49ers staff, Curry spent three years at Mooresville Christian Academy in Mooresville, N.C., as the athletic director and head football coach.

Curry was originally selected in the seventh round (235th overall) by the Oakland Raiders in the 2002 NFL Draft. He played in 76 career games with 32 starts and registered 193 receptions for 2,347 yards and 13 touchdowns from 2002-08.

While with Oakland, Curry learned the intricacies of the wide receiver position from Pro Football Hall of Famers Fred Biletnikoff (2003-06) and James Lofton (2008).

A four-year starter at quarterback at the University of North Carolina (1998-2001), Curry left Chapel Hill with school records of 4,987 passing yards and 6,236 yards of total offense in his career. In the 2001 Peach Bowl against Auburn, Curry earned Offensive Most Valuable Player honors. The year prior, Curry was voted Tar Heels Offensive MVP as a junior, where he registered 2,325 passing yards and 11 passing touchdowns. Curry was a two-sport athlete at UNC, as he was also the starting point guard on the school's 1998-99 and 2000-01 basketball teams.

A Hampton, Va. native, Curry was a high school All-American in football and basketball.

PLAYING CAREER: North Carolina, 1998-2001; Oakland Raiders, 2002-08.
COACHING CAREER: Mooresville Christian Academy (Head Coach), 2010-12; San Francisco 49ers, 2013-15; New Orleans Saints, 2016-.

Declan Doyle is in his fourth season as an offensive assistant with the Saints. Prior to joining the Saints, he started his coaching career as an offensive student assistant at the University of Iowa. At Iowa, Doyle primarily assisted the offensive staff during daily individual drills and broke down film of upcoming opponents' defenses.

In 2018, Doyle graduated from Iowa with a degree in business management, marketing and related support services. The Iowa City native transferred to Iowa after serving as the baseball team captain at Iowa Western Community College. Doyle's younger brother Dillon, currently plays linebacker for Baylor University, where he completed his junior campaign.

COACHING CAREER: Iowa, 2016-18; New Orleans Saints, 2019-.

PHIL GALIANO
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Phil Galiano enters his fourth season with the New Orleans Saints as assistant special teams coach in 2021. Galiano is a veteran in the coaching ranks with 22 years of experience, including six seasons in the NFL.

In 2021, Saints special teams ranked fifth in NFL writer Rick Gosselin's comprehensive special teams rankings for the second consecutive season. Special teams ace J.T. Gray received his first career selection as a starter in the league's All-Star Game after leading the NFL with 19 special teams tackles and was also an AP first-team All-Pro. LB Andrew Dowell, in his first full NFL season, tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops and blocked a punt. Galiano helped prepare Blake Gillikin for his first season handling punting duties. 29 of Gillikin's punts were downed inside the 20-yard line, ranked fourth in the NFL and tying a team record. The Saints special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (24.1-yard line) and eighth in punt return average (10.0).

2020 saw the Saints ranked fifth in Gosselin's annual rankings. They ranked first in opponent punt return average (2.3) and second in opponent kickoff return average (17.2), sixth in kickoff return average (25.4 avg.) and ninth in punt return average (10.2 avg.), while ranking third in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (23.8-yard line) and ninth in average starting position after kickoffs (25.9-yard line). Despite missing seven games with injuries, wide receiver/return specialist Deonte Harris had a 12.2 punt return average and 27.3 kickoff return average. Kicker Wil Lutz (Week Five) and punter Thomas Morstead (Week One) each were named NFC Special Teams Player of the week once.

The 2019 season saw special teams rise to first in Gosselin's special teams rankings. The special teams featured standout performances from Harris, Lutz, Morstead and Gray. For the first time in franchise history, two special teams players were selected to the Associated Press All-Pro team (Gray and Harris) and for the second time two were selected to the Pro Bowl (Harris and Lutz). As an undrafted free agent, Harris ranked in the top five in the NFL in both kickoff and punt return average. Lutz set a franchise record by drilling 32 field goals, ranking second in the NFL in scoring (144 points), PATs (48), touchbacks (career-high 74) and third in field goals. Morstead ranked fifth in the NFL in net punting average (43.1) and was named the September NFC Special Teams Player of the Month and twice was selected conference Special Teams Player of the Week. Gray led the Saints with 16 stops, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble on coverage.

In 2018, Galiano was the special teams coordinator and assistant defensive line coach at Penn State. The Nittany Lions were ranked 12th in the country in kickoff return average with (24.7 ypr.) and 23rd in special teams efficiency and gross punt average (44.0 avg.). He joined the Nittany Lions in 2017 as a defensive consultant and served as the special teams coordinator for the 2017 Playstation Fiesta Bowl.

In 2016, he was a special teams intern with the Miami Dolphins and served under current Saints Assistant Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator Darren Rizzi. Miami ranked seventh in Gosselin's special teams rankings and led the National Football League in opponent gross punting average (41.8 yards per punt) and tied for the league lead with four blocked kicks.

Galiano spent eight years at Rutgers over three stints, most recently as special teams coordinator/tight ends coach in 2015 and director of recruiting in 2014. Under Galiano's tutelage in 2015, the Scarlet Knights ranked 12th in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking, including ¬finishing 19th in the FBS in kick return defense (18.75), 13th in punt return average (13.92) and scoring ¬five special teams touchdowns in 2015.

After 12 years at the college level, Galiano jumped to the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2012-13 as assistant special teams coach. In 2013, Tampa Bay led the NFL in kickoff return defense (18.8 ypr.) and blocked two punts. In 2012, the Buccaneers led the NFL with three blocked punts. Galiano also worked with kicker Connor Barth, who tied for the league lead in field goals of 40+ yards and punter Michael Koenen, who led the league in touchbacks on kickoffs and touchback percentage on kickoffs

In his second stint with the Scarlet Knights, Galiano coached the defensive line (2011) and tight ends (2010). In 2011, the Rutgers defense fi¬nished third in the FBS in forced turnovers (34), eighth in tackles for loss (7.62) and scoring defense (18.31) and 15th in sacks (2.69).

Prior to his second stint at Rutgers, Galiano served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International from 2007-09. At FIU, Galiano helped the Panthers achieve marked improvements on the defensive side of the ball. Between the 2007 and 2008 seasons, FIU jumped up 74 spots in turnover margin, 45 spots in pass efficiency defense, 36 spots in scoring defense, 34 spots in total defense and 25 spots in rush defense. The team also ranked 25th nationally in tackles for loss average, moving up 37 spots.

In his first stop at Rutgers from 2003-06, Galiano began as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003, before he was elevated to linebackers coach in 2004. He spent the 2005-06 seasons coaching the defensive ends. His defensive ends were major contributors on a defensive unit that ranked fourth nationally in 2006. Rutgers' defense was fifth in the NCAA in sacks and tackles for loss per game and produced first-team All-America and All-Big East defensive lineman Eric Foster, as well as second-team All-Big East defensive lineman Jamaal Westerman, both of whom played in the NFL.

Galiano began his coaching career at Dickinson College, where he worked with the outside linebackers in 2000. He spent 2001 as outside linebackers coach at the University of New Haven for Rizzi who served as head coach, before becoming an offensive assistant at Villanova in 2002, working primarily with the tight ends.

A three-year starter at safety for Shippensburg, Galiano served as a tri-captain during his senior campaign. He helped lead the Raiders to three consecutive winning seasons from 1997-99. The Norristown, Pennsylvania native graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

PETER GIUNTA
SENIOR DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Peter Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) enters his seventh season as a Saints senior defensive assistant in 2022. He's a 43-year coaching veteran, including 31 years of experience in the NFL with three Super Bowl Championships.

In 2021, Giunta worked with Kris Richard to develop young contributors, as well as enhance the performance of veterans. He helped develop third round draft pick Paulson Adebo, who was the only Saints defender to open all 17 contests in 2021, while tying for the team lead with three interceptions, second among National Football League rookies. Marshon Lattimore continued his improvement with a career-high 19 passes defensed, ranked third in the NFL, while being selected to his fourth Pro Bowl in his first five seasons. New Orleans was tied for sixth in the NFL with 18 interceptions, with 16 of them coming from the secondary, with Adebo, C.J. Gardner-Johnson, Lattimore and P.J. Williams tied for the team lead with three apiece. In addition to New Orleans finishing fourth in the NFL in scoring defense (19.7 points per game) and seventh in total defense (318.2 net yards per game), the Saints gave up the third-fewest touchdown passes (20).

In 2020, the secondary contributed to the Saints tying for third in the NFL in takeaways (26), first in interceptions (18), ranked fourth in total defense (310.9 ypg.), and fifth in opponent points per game (21.1) and opponent net passing yards per game (217.0 ypg.). With the guidance of Giunta, Malcolm Jenkins (team-leading four takeways), Janoris Jenkins and Marcus Williams all had three interceptions and Lattimore was selected to his third Pro Bowl.

In 2019, Saints defensive backs recorded nine interceptions, 2.5 sacks, five forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. Giunta had a helping hand in the growth of fourth-year safety Vonn Bell, who totaled five regular season fumble recoveries – the most in the NFL and added another in the postseason. Bell also led the secondary in tackles (86) for the fourth consecutive season. Marcus Williams led the team with four interceptions. Lattimore became the first Saints cornerback to be selected to two Pro Bowls, leading the team with 14 passes defensed. Gardner-Johnson, played at both nickel corner and safety, posting 46 tackles, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery as he developed throughout the season as a rookie.

In 2018, New Orleans defensive backs recorded ten interceptions, three sacks, nine forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries. Giunta aided in the continued development of Lattimore, who led the team with five takeaways in the regular season, adding two interceptions in the NFC Divisional Playoff win over Philadelphia. At the cornerback position opposite Lattimore, Eli Apple made a successful in-season transition to the Saints after being acquired from the New York Giants at midseason, recording three takeaways in ten games.

Lattimore enjoyed a breakout campaign in 2017, starting all 13 games he appeared in and leading NFL rookies with a team-high five interceptions and tying for the rookie lead with a club-best 18 passes defensed as he was the youngest Saint (21 years old) ever selected to the Pro Bowl and the franchise's first Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Giunta served as the secondary/cornerbacks coach of the Giants from 2006-14, a period when New York captured two Super Bowl titles. He was at the forefront in the development of several young cornerbacks, also experiencing success with veterans.

During his tenure in New York, the Salem, Mass. native was pivotal in the development of cornerbacks who contributed to the Giants winning two Super Bowls. Former LSU standout Corey Webster developed into an eight-year starter under Giunta's watch and recorded 22 interceptions and four fumble recoveries in the regular season and postseason, including recording three takeaways in the 2007 playoffs all the way to a Super Bowl title. Webster's pick of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime of the NFC Championship in Green Bay. In 2011, Webster opened all 20 regular season and postseason contests. Aaron Ross, the club's first round draft pick in 2007, was inserted into the starting lineup midway through his rookie campaign and he delivered with three interceptions, one brought back for a score. Ross returned to the starting lineup in 2011 and finished tied for second on the team to Webster (six) with a career-high four picks. Giunta was instrumental in the development of cornerback Prince Amukamara, the team's first round draft pick in 2011, who despite missing the last eight games with a biceps injury in 2014, had set a career-high with three interceptions through the first eight contests. In 2009, cornerback Terrell Thomas led the team with five interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, as New York ranked ninth in opponent net passing yards per game. Thomas was selected to the USA Today All-Joe Team.

Giunta was Kansas City's defensive backs coach from 2001-05. In 2003, safety Jerome Woods earned his first career Pro Bowl berth under his guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the 2002 campaign with a broken leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as safety Greg Wesley and cornerback Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with the St. Louis Rams, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99, after originally joining the staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in 1999, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 ppg.) and sixth in total defense (293.6 ypg.).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. Cornerback Todd Lyght tied for the league lead with six picks, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interceptions and two fumbles) for touchdowns in 1999. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied for the league lead. The sack brigade was headlined by Pro Bowl defensive end Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 takedowns.

Giunta's long had a reputation for getting the most out of his defensive backs. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes, a total surpassed only by one player. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in pass defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by cornerback Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as defensive backs coach for the New York Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in opponent net yards passing (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was instrumental in the development of Glenn, who would go on to be a three-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1991-94. In 1991, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's ten seasons in the college ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). He was a defensive assistant his first year before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure.

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). He then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts, where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

PLAYING CAREER: Northeastern, 1974-77.

MICHAEL HODGES
LINEBACKERS

The New Orleans Saints hired Michael Hodges during the 2017 offseason to serve as a defensive assistant. Hodges was promoted to assistant linebackers coach in 2019 and now enters his third season as linebackers coach.

Under Hodges' guidance in 2021, Demario Davis led the team with 105 tackles (70 solo) and added three sacks and seven passes defensed as he was selected as an Associated Press second-team All-Pro. In his second stint with the Saints, Doug Marrone returns to the Saints in 2022 after originally spending three seasons on the club's coaching staff from 2006-08 as offensive coordinator/offensive line.

Marrone possesses 30 years of coaching experience, including ten as a head coach, six in the National Football League. This will be his 16th season coaching in the NFL, having experience as a position coach, coordinator and head coach.

Marrone returns to New Orleans after serving as the offensive line coach at the University of Alabama in 2021. This past season, Marrone tutored an offensive line unit that helped the Crimson Tide win the Southeastern Conference championship game and advance to the College Football Playoff final, anchored by left tackle Evan Neal, who in his first season as a starter at the position and was a consensus All-American.

Marrone came to Alabama after four-plus seasons as head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2016-20). He guided the Jaguars to the 2017 AFC Championship game after finishing with a 10-6 regular season record in his first full season as head coach after going 1-1 in interim duties in 2016. His 2017 team was tied for the NFL's biggest win/loss improvement (plus-seven) among first-year head coaches and earned him AFC Coach of the Year recognition from the prestigious Kansas City Committee of 101.

From 2017-20, Marrone coached eight players to eleven Pro Bowl selections and five players to AP All-Pro selections. He coached the Jacksonville offensive line for two years prior to becoming head coach. His 2016 offensive line allowed 17 fewer sacks than the previous season while the 2015 unit helped former running back T.J. Yeldon become the first Jaguars rookie to surpass 1,000 yards from scrimmage since 2006.

Marrone also spent two years as the Buffalo Bills head coach from 2013-14, winning 15 games over two seasons, including a 9-7 record and a second-place finish in the AFC East in 2014. The 9-7 mark was the Bills' first winning record since 2004. He became only the third head coach in Bills history up to that date to win 15 games in his first two seasons. His 2013 Bills team led the AFC and finished second in the NFL in rushing (144.2 ypg.) while also leading the league in red zone scoring percentage (95.5 pct.).

Prior to joining the Bills, Marrone spent four seasons (2009-12) as the head coach at Syracuse, where he led the program to a 21-17 record in his final three seasons. He guided the Orange to an 8-5 mark in 2010 and 2012 with both seasons culminating with victories in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Marrone earned AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year honors in 2011 and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award.

Marrone's first seven NFL seasons as an assistant coach (2002-08) culminated with his hiring at Syracuse based on his success in New Orleans from 2006-08. During Marrone's first Saints tenure, the Saints led the NFL in total offense twice (391.5 avg. in 2006; 410.7 avg. in 2008) and passing yards per game two times (281.4 avg. in 2006; 311.1 in 2008). The Saints' offensive line held their opponents to the fewest sacks allowed in the NFL in 2007 (16), second-lowest in 2008 (club-record 13) and tied for the fewest sacks in the NFL from 2006-08 with 52 despite leading the NFL with 1,868 passing attempts during that span. Quarterback Drew Brees captured the NFL passing title in 2006 (4,418 yards) and 2008 (5,069) and became just the second passer in NFL history to eclipse 5,000 passing yards.

Before his first stint in New Orleans, Marrone was the offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2002-05 and the team made two postseason appearances (2002, 2004) and running back Curtis Martin led the NFL in rushing in 2004. Before arriving in New York, Marrone served as tight ends/tackles coach at the University of Tennessee in 2001. He spent the 2000 season at the University of Georgia as offensive line coach after spending the previous five seasons (1995-99) at Georgia Tech where he was part of three consecutive bowl appearances. He was director of football operations for the Yellow Jackets in 1995 before coaching the tight ends in 1996 and offensive line from 1997-99.

RYAN NIELSEN
CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / DEFENSIVE LINE

In his sixth season in charge of the team's defensive line, Ryan Nielsen also served as an assistant head coach in 2021 and in 2022 will add co-defensive coordinator duties. Nielsen has a history of developing players on the professional and college levels and brings abundant experience to the New Orleans defense. Since 2017, New Orleans' 233 sacks ranked third in the league, seven different defensive linemen have produced multi-sack games and the New Orleans defense went an NFL-record 55 regular season and postseason games without allowing a 100-yard rusher between the 2017-20 campaigns and has the longest current streak at 22 consecutive contests. During his tenure in New Orleans, the Saints have ranked in the top ten in sacks four of five seasons and have finished in the top five in run defense the last four campaigns.

With the NFL's fourth ranked rush defense (93.5 yards per game) and the eighth-most sacks (46), Nielsen worked with his position group to help produce standout campaigns from longtime veterans as well as overseeing development from the team's promising young defenders. Nielsen helped defensive end Cameron Jordan earn Pro Bowl honors, as he finished the season tied for seventh in the NFL with 12.5 sacks. In the five seasons that Nielsen has served as Jordan's position coach, his 60.5 sacks are tied for third in the league over that period, with four double-digit campaigns and being selected to the Pro Bowl each season. Along with defensive end Marcus Davenport, who posted a career-high nine quarterback takedowns, the Saints were just one of seven teams to have a pair of teammates record at least nine sacks.

In 2020, Nielsen guided a defensive line that saw defensive end Trey Hendrickson enjoy a breakout season with 13.5 sacks, tied for second in the league as he received PFWA All-NFL honors. Jordan posted 7.5 sacks and also served as a solid run defender for the league's fourth-ranked rush defense both in yards per game and yards per rush, as he was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth consecutive year. In the middle, defensive tackle David Onyemata enjoyed a breakout campaign with 6.5 quarterback takedowns and one interception. Second-year defensive end Carl Granderson made a significant contribution with five takedowns, four in the season's last five weeks.

In 2019, New Orleans ranked third in the NFL with 51 sacks with 38.5 of them coming from the defensive line. New Orleans also ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent yards rushing per game (91.3). Jordan was again instrumental in the defense's success as he tallied a career-high 15.5 sacks, ranked third in the NFL and collected one more takedown in the postseason. Jordan was selected to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season, as an Associated Press second-team All-Pro for the second straight campaign and NFC Defensive Player of the Week after a dominating performance with four sacks to tie the team record as the team also tied the club single-game record with nine takedowns. Davenport finished second on the team with six sacks and Hendrickson added 4.5 takedowns.

In 2018, Nielsen tutored a front four that contributed to the Saints finishing tied for fifth in the NFL with 49 sacks and ranking second in the league in opponent rushing yards per game (80.2) and opponent yards per rush (3.6). Jordan enjoyed an outstanding season with 12 sacks, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Defensive tackle Sheldon Rankins enjoyed a breakthrough season with a career-high eight sacks, the most by a Saints interior defender since 2001. Davenport was a PFWA All-Rookie selection with 4.5 sacks, Onyemata had a career-high 4.5 takedowns and defensive end Alex Okafor chipped in four sacks and a fumble recovery.

In 2017, under Nielsen's supervision, Jordan became the first Saints defensive end to be named an AP first-team All-Pro. Jordan's elite season highlighted by 13 sacks earned him numerous individual accomplishments, including his third Pro Bowl nod and his first NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week Six) and NFC Defensive Player of the Month (November) honors.

From 2013-2016, he was the defensive line/recruiting coordinator/run game coordinator at North Carolina State. The 2016 season saw the Wolfpack rank eighth in the FBS in rush defense and lead the ACC, allowing just 108.6 rushing yards per game — the school's best mark since 2004. Junior defensive end Bradley Chubb recorded 22 tackles for loss, fourth in the country, while his 11 sacks were fourth in the ACC and 19th in the nation. He was named second-team All-ACC. A Broyles Award candidate in 2015/2016, given annually to college football's top assistant coach, Nielsen earned this recognition tutoring a Wolfpack defensive line that was part of a defense that ranked 29th in the FBS in opponent net yards per game. Defensive end Mike Rose was a second-team All-ACC selection after he finished second in the ACC in sacks and ninth in tackles for loss. In the 2018 NFL Draft, four linemen who Nielsen coached in Raleigh; Chubb, B.J. Hill, Justin Jones and current Saints defensive tackle Kentavius Street, were all selected.

Nielsen coached at Northern Illinois from 2011-12, including a 2012 season where he was the co-defensive coordinator/defensive line/recruiting coordinator and helped the Huskies to the GoDaddy.com Bowl. Two defensive lineman were first-team All-MAC selections in 2012, Sean Progar and Alan Baxter, while Nabal Jefferson was a National Scholar-Athlete and finalist for the 2012 William V. Campbell Trophy. In 2011, Nielsen coached Progar and Ron Newcomb to All-Mid American Conference honors.

Serving as the defensive line/special teams coach at Tennessee-Martin in 2010, the Skyhawks led the Ohio Valley Conference in total defense. From 2008-09, Nielsen was the defensive coordinator and coached the defensive line and linebackers at Central Connecticut State. In 2009, Central Connecticut won the Northeastern Conference title. Nielsen served as the defensive line coach at the University of Mississippi from 2005-07 under current LSU Head Coach and former Saints Defensive Line Coach Ed Orgeron, following one season at the University of Idaho (2004), where he coached two freshman All-Americans. Mississippi defensive linemen led the Southeastern Conference in sacks twice during his three-year stint. Nielsen got his start in coaching as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, the University of Southern California in 2002.

Nielsen, a Simi Valley, Calif. native who started 30 games at defensive tackle at USC from 1998-2001 as a teammate of Saints Secondary Coach Kris Richard, finished his college career with 107 career tackles and was voted the team's Defensive Lineman of the Year in 1999. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in public policy in 2002 and went to training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles. He played for the Arena Football League's Los Angeles Avengers in 2004.

KRIS RICHARD
CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/ SECONDARY

Kris Richard originally joined the Saints as secondary coach in 2021 and adds co-defensive coordinator duties to his responsibilities in 2022. Richard has 15 years of NFL playing and coaching experience.

In 2021, Richard helped develop third round draft pick Paulson Adebo, who was the only Saints defender to open all 17 contests in 2021, while tying for the team lead with three interceptions, second among all National Football League rookies. Marshon Lattimore continued his improvement under Richard with a career-high 19 passes defensed, ranked third in the NFL. New Orleans was tied for sixth in the NFL with 18 interceptions, with 16 of them coming from the secondary, with Adebo, C.J. Gardner-Johnson, Lattimore and P.J. Williams tied for the team lead with three apiece. In addition to New Orleans finishing fourth in the NFL in scoring defense (19.7 points per game) and seventh in total defense (318.2 net yards per game), the Saints gave up the third-fewest touchdown passes (20).

From 2018-19, Richard served as passing game coordinator/secondary with the Dallas Cowboys, where he oversaw a Cowboys pass defense that improved in several areas, while also playing a key role with several players in the passing game. In 2019, the Cowboys finished in the top ten in opponent third down percentage (second-33.3%), pass defense (tenth-223.5 yards per game), passing yards per attempt (eighth-6.82), passing yards per completion (fifth-10.48), touchdown passes (tied for eighth-21) and passing touchdown percentage (ninth-3.7), while improving in their opponent points per game total (20.1) to rank 11th. Linebacker Jaylon Smith was selected to his first Pro Bowl. In 2018, his first season in Dallas, the Cowboys defensive unit was seventh in total defense (329.3 yards-per-game), sixth in points-per-game (20.3) and seventh in red zone touchdown percentage (51%). His tutelage also played a role in the growth of Byron Jones, who moved back to cornerback from safety, where he played most of his early career and earned his first Pro Bowl nod and AP second-team All-Pro honors after limiting opposing receivers to only 53% of targets against him and only two touchdowns on the season. He set a career-best and led the team in passes defensed (15) and allowed only 94 yards after the catch-fifth-fewest in the NFL.

Prior to his arrival in Dallas, Richard spent eight seasons (2010-2017) in different capacities for the Seattle Seahawks, including the last three as defensive coordinator. During his tenure, Seattle boasted a defense that ranked in the top-five for five straight seasons (2012-16). Under his tutelage, safety Earl Thomas earned five Pro Bowl nominations and four AP All-Pro (three first-team, one second-team) selections, cornerback Richard Sherman was a four-time Pro Bowler and four-time All-Pro (three first-team, one second-team) and safety Kam Chancellor a four-time Pro Bowler and two-time second-team All-Pro. Sherman's 32 career interceptions are tied for fourth in Seahawks history with Hall of Famer Kenny Easley.

Seattle finished sixth in passing defense in 2017, allowing only 209.2 yards-per-game through the air and placing 11th in the league overall defense. In his first season as defensive coordinator in 2015, Seattle continued its defensive dominance, as it led the NFL in scoring defense for the fourth consecutive season (2012-15), becoming the first defense in the Super Bowl era to accomplish the feat. Cleveland led the league in scoring defense for a record five straight seasons from 1953-57 in 12-game seasons. The group led the league in rush defense, allowing 81.5 yards-per-game and a franchise-record low 1,304 yards for the second consecutive season.

In 2013, the secondary propelled Seattle's defense to one of the NFL's most dominant. The Seahawks defensive backfield helped Seattle rank first in the league in passing defense (172.0 yards-per-game), interceptions (28) and opponent passer rating (63.4). In Seattle's Super Bowl XLVIII victory over Denver, the secondary held Peyton Manning to 280 passing yards (340.3 avg. in regular season), a 73.5 passer rating (115.1) and recorded one interception (by Chancellor).

During Richard's tenure, Seattle boasted a defense that ranked in the top-five for five consecutive seasons (2012-16), finishing fifth in 2016, before an injury-plagued season caused the unit to finish 11th in 2017. The Seahawks also became the fourth team in NFL history to lead the league in fewest points and yards allowed in back-to-back seasons (2013-14), the first since the 1985-86 Chicago Bears.

Prior to joining Seattle, Richard spent two seasons (2008-09) as a graduate assistant at the University of Southern California, working with the defensive backs.

Originally a third round pick (85th overall) by Seattle, Richard played in 38 games at cornerback with one start for the Seahawks from (2002-04) before playing one season in San Francisco (2005).

Richard lettered four years (1998-2001) at the University of Southern California, where he was a college teammate of Saints Co-Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Line Coach Ryan Nielsen, starting his final three seasons. He had eight career interceptions and returned three for touchdowns, along with 125 tackles, 19 passes defensed and two fumble recoveries. The Los Angeles native received his bachelor's degree in sociology.

In May, Richard participated in the Inaugural National Football League Coach and Front Office Accelerator Program, a two-day program where he took part in leadership development sessions with football operations experts and facilitators, as well as time spent directly networking with club owners.

DARREN RIZZI
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/ SPECIAL TEAMS COORIDINATOR

Darren Rizzi was named special teams coordinator for the New Orleans Saints on February 11, 2019 and adds the important role of assistant head coach in 2022 under Head Coach Dennis Allen. Rizzi brings 29 years of coaching experience, including a ten-season stint with the Miami Dolphins from 2009-18.

Units that Rizzi has coordinated the past 11 seasons are ranked first in the NFL over that period with 13 blocked punts. Since entering the NFL in 2009, six special teams players have been named to seven Pro Bowls. He has coached six players to the NFL All-Rookie team in the past nine years. Rizzi's units have served in the top half of NFL writer Rick Gosselin's annual special teams rankings in all 11 years that he has served as a coordinator, including first in 2019 and fifth in both 2020 and 2021.

In 2021, Saints special teams ace J.T. Gray received his first career selection as a Pro Bowl starter after leading the NFL with 19 special teams tackles and was also an AP first-team All-Pro. LB Andrew Dowell, in his first full NFL season, tied for fifth in the league with 14 coverage stops and blocked a punt. Rizzi prepared Blake Gillikin for his first season handling punting duties. 29 of Gillikin's punts were downed inside the 20-yard line, ranked fourth in the NFL and tying a team record. The Saints special teams unit ranked fourth in the NFL in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (24.1-yard line) and eighth in punt return average (10.0).

In 2020, Rizzi fielded a unit that ranked first in opponent punt return average (2.3), second in opponent kickoff return average (17.2), sixth in kickoff return average (25.4 avg.) and ninth in punt return average (10.2 avg.), while ranking third in opponent average starting position after kickoffs (23.8-yard line) and ninth in average starting position after kickoffs (25.9-yard line). WR/RS Deonte Harris had a 12.2 punt return average and 27.3 kickoff return average.

In his first season with New Orleans in 2019, Rizzi worked with a unit that rose to first in Gosselin's rankings. The special teams featured standout performances from Harris, K Wil Lutz, P Thomas Morstead and Gray. For the first time in franchise history, two special teams players were selected to the AP All-Pro team (Gray and Harris) and for the second time two were selected to the Pro Bowl (Harris and K Wil Lutz). An undrafted free agent, Harris ranked in the top five in the NFL in both kickoff and punt return average. Lutz set a team record by drilling 32 field goals, ranking second in the NFL in scoring (144 points), PATs (48), touchbacks (career-high 74) and third in field goals. P Thomas Morstead ranked fifth in the NFL in net punting average (43.1) and was named the September NFC Special Teams Player of the Month and twice was selected conference Special Teams Player of the Week. Gray led the Saints with 16 coverage stops, blocked a punt and recovered a fumble on coverage.

The 2018 Dolphins graded out fourth in the NFL in Gosselin's rankings. Jason Sanders drilled 18-of-20 (90.0 pct.) field goal attempts and was a PFWA All-Rookie selection, one of only four kickers to kick in all of his team's games and miss just two or fewer field goals and one of only four to miss three or fewer kicks. His 90.0 field goal percentage was ranked eighth in the NFL and fifth-best in Dolphins history. Matt Haack's 35 punts downed inside the 20 ranked fifth in the NFL. Miami was ninth in the NFL in punt return average (10.5 avg.) with Jakeem Grant leading the league (16.3) before being placed on Injured Reserve in Week 13.

The 2017 Dolphins were tied for second in the NFL with three blocked kicks – two field goals and one punt. Cody Parkey tied what was a team field goal percentage record by converting 21-of-23 attempts (91.3 pct.), including a 54-yard game-winner, the longest game-winner in team history. He also successfully converted four onside kicks, the most in NFL history since records date back to 1997. Miami's kickoff coverage unit was the best in the NFL, forcing opponents to start on average at their own 23-yard line. The team graded out at No. 11 in Gosselin's rankings and Pro Football Focus ranked the team's special teams No. 6 in the NFL. S Michael Thomas was named PFF's Special Teamer of the Year and led the Dolphins with 11 special teams tackles.

Miami was seventh in Gosselin's rankings in 2016, led the NFL in opponent gross punting average (41.8) and tied for the league lead with four blocked kicks. Andrew Franks made his first two career game-winning kicks and drilled an important 55-yard field goal at Buffalo (12/24) as the field goal unit was rushing onto the field to tie the game and send it to overtime. The eventual Dolphins win went on to solidify the team's first playoff berth since 2008. Grant and KR Kenyan Drake each had touchdown returns, becoming the second Dolphins rookie tandem and fourth NFL rookie duo to return a punt and kickoff for a touchdown in the same season. Thomas tied for the NFL lead in special teams tackles (19, including a league-best 16 solo). Walt Aikens scored the first two-point defensive conversion in team history after he returned a blocked PAT for two points. The team finished in the top ten in several additional special teams units including opponents starting field position following a kickoff (tenth/24.4 yard line), own starting field position following a kickoff (eighth/25.3 yard line) and opponent net punting average (third/37.4 yards per punt).

In 2015, Jarvis Landry, now a Saints wideout, earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his Week One performance, when he returned a punt 69 yards for a touchdown. Landry ranked fourth in the NFL with 356 punt return yards. Matt Darr posted the fourth-best gross punting average (47.6) in team history and earned NFL All-Rookie team honors as his punting average was third in the league. Franks was 13-for-16 in field goal attempts as a rookie. The Dolphins ranked in the top 10 in five special teams categories.

In 2014, Rizzi guided a special teams unit that set the team record with three blocked punts. They also added two blocked field goals, giving Miami five blocked kicks, the most since the team blocked seven in 1977. Explosive plays were not limited to the block units as Landry won October AFC Special Teams Player of the Month when he returned five kickoffs for 178 yards (35.6 avg.), with a long of 54. The 35.6 average kickoff return was the second-highest in the NFL in October and the highest October average in franchise history. Landry finished the season with a 28.1 kick return average, the fourth-highest in the NFL and tops among rookies.

In 2013, for the third-straight season, Dolphins special teams were rated among the top eight units in the NFL based on Gosselin's annual rankings. Miami was one of three teams to remain in the top 10 (along with Baltimore and Seattle) in both the 2013 and 2012 rankings. Additionally, from 2011-13, only Miami and Seattle were ranked in the top 10. Rizzi's units were highlighted by the play of Brandon Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in gross punting average (48.8), second in net average (42.4, which was eighth-best in NFL history at the time), tied for fourth with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season.

The 2012 campaign was built off a strong 2011 for Dolphins special teams. Gosselin ranked Miami as one of the top five special teams units in the NFL for the second consecutive year, making the Dolphins the only team in the NFL to rank in the top five during both the 2012 and 2011 seasons, following a second place finish in '11. Fields continued to establish himself as one of the most productive punters in NFL history, leading the league with a 50.2 average, while moving into first place in team history for highest career punting average (46.4), highest-career net punting average (38.7) and second place in NFL history for highest-career punting average (46.4). Marcus Thigpen became the first player in team history to return a kickoff and a punt for touchdowns in the same season. Thigpen also stood alone as the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in kickoff return average (27.4) and punt return average (12.2). Additionally, Miami became the first NFL team in the last 20 years to block a field goal, block a punt and recover their own onside kick in the same game.

After Rizzi took over the special teams in Week Five of the 2010 season, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punting average, punt and kick return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punting average. He led an impressive 2011 season by the Dolphins special teams. The units showed the biggest improvement of any NFL special teams unit from 2010 to 2011, according to Gosselin's annual report. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from their 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011. The 22-place advancement was aided by K Dan Carpenter's 13-of-16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a college head coach, including 2008 at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams units. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years and the linebackers his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at Rutgers, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams, including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his Rutgers stint, Rizzi was head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. He was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. He coached at New Haven from 1994-97, where he was defensive coordinator in his final year, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards (15.2 avg.) and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All-American in 1992. He was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career.

A native of Hillsdale, N.J. and a graduate of Bergen Catholic High School, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992. In 2013, he was inducted into the Bergen Catholic Hall of Fame. A two-sport high school star, he concluded his prep football career with 69 receptions, a school record which stood for 22 years, also excelling as an All-League outfielder for the baseball team.

DAN ROUSHAR

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/ TIGHT ENDS

A 36-year coaching veteran, including two stints as an offensive coordinator, Dan Roushar begins his tenth season with the New Orleans Saints and his second as the team's run game coordinator/tight ends.

In addition to overseeing the team's running game, Roushar tutors the team's tight ends, one of the offense's most youthful position groups, after overseeing one of the NFL's most productive offensive lines from 2016-20. He previously served as tight ends coach in 2015 and tutored the running backs from 2013-14.

In 2021, Roushar was instrumental in the development of a tight ends group that predominantly featured a pair of players in their first NFL season. In his second season, 2020 third round draft pick Adam Trautman, led the position group with 27 receptions. Also in his second campaign, Juwan Johnson converted to the position from wide receiver and led the position group with four touchdown grabs.

In 2020, Roushar coached what continued to be one of the NFL's most stable offensive lines under his supervision. With the help of Roushar and the offensive coaching staff, the Saints rushed for a franchise-record and NFL-high 30 touchdowns, tied for the sixth-highest total all-time, ranked sixth in rushing yards per game (141.6) and were the league's fourth-ranked scoring team. Under Roushar's guidance, the offensive line blocked for RB Alvin Kamara, who led the NFL with a franchise-record 21 total touchdowns, while leading the team in both rushing and receiving with a career-high 1,688 total yards from scrimmage. RT Ryan Ramczyk was an Associated Press second-team All-Pro selection, while LT Terron Armstead and LG Andrus Peat were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2019, Roushar coached a line that blocked for an offense that averaged 373.9 yards per game, ninth in the league, and 5.9 yards per play, sixth in the NFL. The offensive line's blocking was also a major part in the offense, averaging 265.3 passing yards per game, which was the seventh-highest average in the NFL, while surrendering only 25 sacks, tied for the league's third-lowest total. Drew Brees and Teddy Bridgewater combined to throw for 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions. Roushar oversaw the development of rookie C Erik McCoy, the club's second round pick, who opened all 16 games and was a consensus all-rookie selection. Ramzyck was a first-team Associated Press All-Pro selection, while Armstead, Peat and RG Larry Warford were named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2018, Roushar helped the line block for a rushing attack that was ranked sixth (126.6 avg.) in the NFL and led the league with 26 touchdowns. Despite being forced to use nine different starting offensive linemen due to injuries, the Saints allowed just 20 sacks, ranked second in the NFL. Armstead and Ramczyk were both selected as AP All-Pros, while Armstead, Peat, C Max Unger and Warford were named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2017, Roushar played a vital role in the development of Ramczyk, one of the club's first round picks, who ended up playing every offensive snap on the line as a PFWA All-Rookie selection. The offensive line allowed just 20 sacks, second-fewest in the NFL, even though it opened with six different lineups. They played an instrumental role in blocking for the only offense to finish in the top five in both rushing and passing, second overall in total offense. The run game ranked fifth in the club's most productive season since 1987, grinding out 129.4 yards per game. The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Mark Ingram and Kamara was second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season (1978). The 4,339 combined total yards from scrimmage by Ingram, Kamara and WR Michael Thomas, was the highest total by a skill position trio in club history. Warford was selected to his first Pro Bowl in his first season as a Saint.

In 2016 under Roushar, the Saints front helped the offense finish ranked first in the NFL in net yards per game (426.0) and second in points per game (29.3). The O-line finished tied for sixth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (27), even though they had to open with six different combinations, including three left tackles and three left guards. Behind the blocking, Brees set an NFL single season record in completions (471) and led the league in passing yardage (5,208), earning a Pro Bowl selection. The line also paved the way for Ingram to surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the first time. The offense also produced a pair of 1,000-yard receivers.

After tutoring the running backs from 2013-14, Roushar became tight ends coach in 2015 and his position group played an integral role in the NFL's second-ranked offense. As a unit, they combined for 101 receptions for 1,021 yards with 11 touchdowns. In his third season in New Orleans and first as the club's featured tight end, Benjamin Watson set career-highs in both receptions and receiving yardage and tied a career-best in scoring grabs, when he made 74 grabs for 825 yards (11.1 avg.) and six touchdowns. Josh Hill and Michael Hoomanawanui, acquired early in the season in a trade with New England, combined for an additional five touchdowns.

In 2014, Roushar helped guide a running attack that gained 1,818 yards and improved in league rankings from 25th to 13th. Under Roushar's tutelage, Ingram enjoyed a breakout season, as he was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career, leading New Orleans with 964 rushing yards and nine touchdowns.

Under Roushar's guidance in 2013, the Saints running backs helped the team finish ranked fourth in the NFL in offense. Pierre Thomas (77) and Darren Sproles (71) became the first running back duo in franchise history to each record at least 70 receptions, as Thomas led the league among running backs and Sproles ranked fourth. Thomas led the team in rushing with 549 yards and finished with 1,062 total yards from scrimmage. Roushar also helped foster impressive development and late season production out of Ingram and rookie Khiry Robinson, the club's leading rushers in the postseason.

Roushar came to New Orleans following a six-year stint at Michigan State, the final two as offensive coordinator/tight ends coach. In 2012, the Spartans enjoyed a productive campaign running the ball, as Le'Veon Bell won the Big Ten rushing title with 1,793 yards, the second-highest single-season total in school history, as he was selected first-team All-Big Ten and a first-team All-American by CollegeFootballNews.com. The pass offense ranked fourth in the conference. In Roushar's first season as coordinator in 2011, the Spartans averaged 31.0 points per game, ranked third in the conference, setting school records for most points (434) and passing yards (3,535), while finishing second in net yardage (5,466). Prior to his promotion to coordinator, Roushar served four seasons as the Spartans' offensive line coach.

In four seasons coaching the Michigan State front, Roushar's linemen earned All-Big Ten recognition eight times. In 2010, the Spartans established their running identity early, rushing for more than 200 yards in five of their first six games. In 2009, his unit surrendered only 14 sacks, the fewest amount of any Big Ten team. The previous year, the offensive line blocked for the nation's fourth-leading rusher in Javon Ringer, while allowing only 24 takedowns. Upon his arrival in East Lansing in 2007, Roushar juggled the starting lineup with eight different offensive line combinations, but he led his unit to be one of the most productive in the Big Ten, as the Spartans ranked fourth in the conference and 25th in the NCAA in rushing (198.2 yards per game).

Prior to arriving in East Lansing, Roushar served two seasons as offensive line coach at Cincinnati from 2005-06. A two-year letterman as a quarterback at Northern Illinois, he began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater in 1984 and also spent time as an assistant at Butler (offensive coordinator-1986-92), the University of Rhode Island (1993), Ball State (offensive coordinator-1994) and the University of Illinois (1995-96). Roushar then spent six years as offensive line coach/offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois before returning to Champaign for a two-year stint in 2003, serving as offensive coordinator in his final season with the Illini.

ZACH STRIEF
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Zach Strief returns in 2022 for his second season as assistant offensive line coach.

A 12-year veteran on the offensive line for the Saints, Strief originally entered the NFL and joined the club as the first of two seventh round picks (210th overall) in 2006 out of Northwestern University. Strief appeared in 158 regular season games with 93 starts from 2006-17, then the 11th-most games played by a Saint in franchise history, third among offensive linemen. He also appeared in ten postseason games, then tied for second in club record books, with four starts.

The Cincinnati, Ohio native opened 87 regular season games and four postseason contests at right tackle from 2011-17. During this period, the Saints ranked first in total offense overall, ranking first in three of those seasons (2011, 2014 and 2016), second three times (2012-13 and 2017) and fourth in 2013. During his tenure as a starter, he led the way for the top four single-season net yards per game totals in team history. He also served as an offensive team captain five times.

Strief anchored Northwestern's offensive line his final three seasons from 2003-05, starting 40 games at right tackle. He was recognized as a first-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and was consensus second-team All-Big Ten as a senior. Strief was a key performer on a record-setting offense that averaged more than 500 net yards per game and ranked fourth nationally, when he was a second-team All-Big Ten selection. Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Strief served as the team's radio play-by-play announcer from 2018-20.

JOEL THOMAS
RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas enters his eighth season as the Saints running backs coach after 15 years of coaching in the college ranks. Since arriving in 2015, the club has led the National Football League with 136 rushing touchdowns.

In the past five seasons, Thomas has helped his players earn six Pro Bowl selections – Mark Ingram II (2017) and Alvin Kamara (2017-21). He has been the position coach for three seasons of at least 1,500 total yards of scrimmage by Kamara and one by Ingram. Since his debut in 2017, Kamara is the only player in the NFL with at least 7,500 total yards from scrimmage and at least 65 touchdowns. In total, Thomas' running backs have registered 23 individual 100-yard performances since 2015.

In his seventh season with the Saints, Thomas tutored Kamara to his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl campaign, as he led the team in both rushing and receiving despite missing four games with a knee injury, carrying 240 times for 898 yards with four touchdowns and catching 47 passes for 439 yards and five scores. Kamara had three 100-yard rushing games for the first time and his 102.8 scrimmage yards per game ranked fifth in the NFL. Kamara finished the season with 4,238 career rushing yards, moving into fourth place in club record books. After being re-acquired by the Saints at midseason, Ingram became the franchise's all-time rushing leader (6,267 yards) and only the second player in club history to have 8,000 career yards from scrimmage.

In 2020, Thomas oversaw the NFL's sixth-ranked rushing attack. New Orleans led the league with a club-record 30 touchdowns on the ground, tied for the NFL's sixth-highest total all-time. Kamara, selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, shattered the team record and led the NFL with 21 touchdowns, ranking second with 93 first downs and third with a career-best 1,688 total yards from scrimmage. In addition to running for a career-high 932 yards on 187 carries (5.0 avg.), Kamara led NFL running backs in receiving with a team-best and career-high 83 grabs for 756 yards and five touchdowns, as he became only the second Saint to lead the team in rushing and receiving in the same season. Latavius Murray served as a solid complement to Kamara in the running game, carrying 146 times for 656 yards (4.5 avg.) with four touchdowns.

The 2019 season was a success for Thomas as the backfield was headlined by Kamara and newcomer Murray. Under Thomas' watch, Kamara became the first Saint to have three consecutive seasons of at least 1,300 total yards from scrimmage in his first three seasons and only the second to do so in three consecutive campaigns. Kamara became the only Black and Gold running back selected to three Pro Bowls, the only Saint to be selected in each of his first three seasons. New Orleans also received significant offensive contributions from Murray, who accounted for 872 total yards from scrimmage and six touchdowns.

In 2018, the Saints were sixth in the NFL in rushing (126.6 ypg.). Kamara had a standout sophomore campaign, as he rushed 194 times for a club best 883 yards (4.6 avg.) with 14 touchdowns. He also caught 81 receptions for 709 yards with four scores for a 1,589 total yards from scrimmage and 18 total touchdowns. Ingram rushed 138 times for 645 yards (4.7 avg.) with six touchdowns in 12 games.

In 2017, the duo of Ingram and rookie Kamara produced standout seasons, with both being selected to the Pro Bowl. Ingram appeared in all 16 games for the second consecutive season and led the team with a career-high 1,124 yards rushing and a career-best 12 touchdowns on 230 carries, a 4.9-yard average per attempt. He added a career-high 58 receptions for 416 yards for a career-high 1,540 yards from scrimmage. Kamara set a league record for rookie running backs with 826 receiving yards on 81 receptions and five touchdowns, while he led the NFL by averaging 6.1 yards per carry on 120 carries for 728 yards with eight touchdowns. He led the club with 1,554 total yards from scrimmage and was selected by the Associated Press as the NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year and as a second-team All-Pro at the Flex position. The 3,094 combined total yards from scrimmage from Ingram and Kamara was the second-most by an NFL running back duo since the start of a 16-game season in 1978.

Under Thomas' tutelage in 2016, Ingram became the first Saint to record 1,000 yards rushing in a single season since Deuce McAllister (2006). He accumulated 1,043 yards on 205 rushing attempts (5.1 avg.) with six touchdowns and 319 yards on 46 receptions with four touchdowns for 1,362 total yards from scrimmage. His 5.1 yards per carry ranked third in the NFL among rushers with at least 200 carries. Tim Hightower also enjoyed a productive season under Thomas, with his 548 rushing yards marking his most since 2010 and his 200 yards receiving marking his most since 2009.

In 2015, Thomas tutored Ingram who had a team-best 1,074 total yards from scrimmage, despite missing the last four games with a shoulder injury. Overall, he carried 166 times for a team-best 769 yards (4.6 avg.) with six touchdowns and added 50 receptions for 405 yards. After Ingram was sidelined, Thomas prepared Hightower, who had missed the previous three seasons into duty and he gained 454 total yards from scrimmage and four touchdowns in the final four contests.

Thomas came to New Orleans following a two-year stint in the same position at the University of Arkansas from 2013-14. In those two seasons, tailbacks Jonathan Williams and Alex Collins both blossomed. In 2014, they were the only pair of Football Bowl Subdivision teammates to rush for 1,000-plus yards. The duo became just the second pair of Razorbacks to accomplish the feat. Collins became just the second player in school history to surpass 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons and was named SEC Freshman of the Year in 2013.

Thomas spent the four previous seasons (2009-12) as running backs coach at the University of Washington, coaching a 1,000 yard rusher in each, and added the title of associate head coach for offense prior to the 2012 campaign. In his last season, Thomas tutored All-Pac-12 running back Bishop Sankey, who ranked third in the Pac-12 and tied for 13th in the NCAA with 16 rushing touchdowns, second-highest single-season in school history, rushing for 1,439 yards, third-highest in Huskies history.

Thomas also has experience as running backs coach at Purdue (2006-08), Idaho (2004-05) and Louisville (2002-03).

In 2007, the Boilermakers led the Big Ten Conference in both the total offense and scoring offense categories. In 2008, they set a school record for fewest fumbles (12) and tailback Kory Sheets rushed for 1,131 yards to become Purdue's first 1,000 yard rusher in six seasons while posting the fourth-highest single-season rushing total in school history, ending his career second on the school's career rushing list with 3,341 yards. Sheets tied the school's single-season rushing touchdowns record with 16 in 2008 and broke the career record (48). Thomas was also at Purdue from 2000-01, as an offensive graduate assistant. In 2000, quarterback Drew Brees led the NCAA in total offense and won the Maxwell Award. The Boilermakers won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

In between two stays at Purdue, Thomas served as co-offensive coordinator at Idaho in 2004-05 and as running backs coach at Louisville from 2002-03. In 2003, Louisville averaged 228.2 rushing yards per game to rank tenth in the NCAA with a school-record 5.7 yards per carry average. The 2004 Idaho squad set a school record for completion percentage, and the 2005 team ranked 28th in the country in passing yards per game.

Thomas also gained valuable NFL coaching experience from two training camp internships, serving one with the Saints in 2012 and one with the Steelers in 2008.

Thomas lettered at running back at the University of Idaho from 1993-98, where he was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and conference Player of the Year as a senior and still holds Vandals career records with 3,929 rushing yards, 51 rushing touchdowns and 765 rushing attempts. He was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008 and earned his bachelor's degree in public communications in 1998.

BRIAN YOUNG
PASS RUSH SPECIALIST

Brian Young enters his seventh season as the club's pass rush specialist. In his 14th season as a valued member of the New Orleans Saints coaching staff, Young has worked with all of the club's front seven position groups after first breaking into the ranks as a coaching assistant from 2009-11 following the conclusion of a nine-year playing career and 124 games along the defensive line in the National Football League.

Since 2017, New Orleans' 233 sacks ranked third in the league, seven different defensive linemen have produced multi-sack games and the New Orleans defense went an NFL-record 55 regular season and postseason games without allowing a 100-yard rusher between the 2017-20 campaigns and has the longest current streak at 22 consecutive contests. The Saints have ranked in the top ten in sacks four of five seasons and have finished in the top five in run defense the last four campaigns.

With the National Football League's fourth ranked rush defense (93.5 yards per game) and the eighth-most sacks (46), Young helped produce standout campaigns from longtime veterans as well as overseeing development from the team's promising young pass rushers. Young helped defensive end Cameron Jordan earn Pro Bowl honors, as he finished the season tied for seventh in the NFL with 12.5 sacks. Along with Marcus Davenport, who posted a career-high nine quarterback takedowns, the Saints were just one of seven teams to have a pair of teammates record at least nine sacks.

Young first joined the Saints coaching staff in 2009 after concluding a nine-year NFL playing career, where he appeared in 124 games and had 22.5 sacks and eight fumble recoveries for the St. Louis Rams (2000-03) and the Saints (2004-08). During his five-year playing tenure with the Black and Gold he served as a valuable member of the Saints interior defensive line rotation, starting 58-of-64 contests.

JEFF IRELAND

VICE PRESIDENT / ASSISTANT GM - COLLEGE PERSONNEL

Ireland is in his eighth season with New Orleans. He's led an effort for the Saints, selecting impact players in Alvin Kamara, Marshon Lattimore, Ryan Ramczyk and Michael Thomas, as well as significant contributors in the draft and undrafted free agency in Paulson Adebo, Marcus Davenport, Deonte Harris, Erik McCoy, C.J. Gardner-Johnson, David Onyemata, Andrus Peat, Tre'Quan Smith, Pete Werner and P.J. Williams.

In 2017, Ireland led a standout draft effort headlined by Lattimore and Kamara becoming the first rookie duo from the same team since 1967 to sweep Associated Press Defensive and Offensive Rookie of the Year and they were the first Saints rookie duo selected to the Pro Bowl as rookies. In 2020, Kamara, the only Saint selected to the Pro Bowl each of his first four campaigns, shattered the club's touchdown record with an NFL-best 21 scores. Lattimore was selected to his third Pro Bowl in 2020. A second round draft pick in 2016, Thomas's 470 receptions are the most by an NFL player in his first four seasons. He shattered the NFL receiving record in 2019, recording 149 receptions for 1,725 yards with nine touchdowns, as he was named AP NFL Offensive Player of the Year, an AP first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter for the second straight season.

Prior to joining the Saints, Ireland served as general manager of the Miami Dolphins from 2008-13. Inheriting a 1-15 team upon his arrival, he worked with the personnel staff to overhaul the team's roster, efforts that resulted in an 11-5 mark and the AFC East title, an unprecedented turnaround. He replaced almost half the roster, bringing on board 27 new faces, including nine new starters. Eight players he acquired through the draft, free agency and trades accounted for a total of 14 Pro Bowl selections, with Jake Long and Cameron Wake earning AP first-team All-Pro.

Ireland joined Miami after a seven-year stint (2001-07) with the Dallas Cowboys, his last three seasons as the team's VP/college and pro scouting. He was originally hired as the team's national scout. In 2007, the Cowboys went 13-3 and won the NFC East. Of the 53 players on the roster, 38 had been acquired over the three years (2005-07) Ireland served as the team's VP/scouting, seven making the Pro Bowl during that time. He began his Cowboys tenure as the team's national scout in 2001. In his four years in that role, his talent evaluation helped lead to the drafting of four Pro Bowl performers.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ireland spent four years with the Kansas City Chiefs as an area scout. He served as a National Football Scouting Combine area scout from 1994-1996 and helped coach special teams at North Texas from 1992-1993. Ireland graduated from Baylor, where he handled placekicking from 1988-1991, finishing third on the school's all-time scoring list with 213 points and a career-record 45 field goals. MICHAEL STANFIELD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

As Senior Vice President of Sales of the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans, Michael Stanfield is a key member of the front office for both clubs. The long-time sports administrative executive is responsible for overseeing the entire consumer and corporate sales efforts for both the New Orleans Saints and New Orleans Pelicans, the two revenue-generating facets of both organizations.

Entering his 23rd season with the Saints and eleventh with the Pelicans, Stanfield is responsible for all of both clubs' sales efforts – directing the sale of season tickets, group tickets, floor seats and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives to the next level in their field, supervising the lease of the Caesars Superdome and Smoothie King Center luxury suites, managing food and beverage on gamedays for both teams, overseeing a vast merchandising business for both teams flanked by Saints and Pelicans retail operations, as well as maintaining the clubs' high standards of customer service and retention.

Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket sales and merchandise sales that were the second-biggest growth in the NBA. In 2021, Stanfield oversaw a successful launch of ticket sales and corporate sponsorship for the Birmingham Squadron, the Pelican's

G-League franchise that just completed their first season of play.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in 2006 – a feat that has reached 16-straight seasons. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones, and those efforts built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history.

Stanfield has also helped oversee the institution of a direct mail and email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns by using the club's expanding digital/social media platforms. The Saints were ranked number one by the National Football League in Overall Gameday Satisfaction in 2018 and 2019 in a survey conducted by the NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs in an eight-category review. In 2020 and 2021, Stanfield empowered his staff to respond to the challenges of providing the safest and most pleasurable fan experience possible during the COVID-19 pandemic. In the annual league audits, the Saints have ranked among league leaders in categories such as safety, security and mobile ticketing based on recent successful adjustments. In 2017, the Pelicans were ranked first in the NBA in season ticket holder satisfaction in a league-commissioned survey.

At the same time as making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield's also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs, providing platforms for companies across the Gulf South and beyond to use the Saints to further their own business objectives. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Caesars Entertainment, Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. In 2021, Stanfield and his staff finalized a ground-breaking 20-year naming rights deal for the Saints' iconic stadium with Caesars Entertainment.

A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports, serving as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A minor league baseball team in 1988 and had attained impressive sales results in sports prior to joining the Saints in 2000. In 2007, Stanfield completed Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce, and served a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and the Executive Host Committee for the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups both nationally and throughout the Gulf South.

Stanfield and his wife Stacey, have one daughter, Olivia.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS ▪ 44 SAINTS ▪ 10

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 3, 1988) - Louisiana Superdome (68,127)

The Vikings spoiled the Saints' playoff debut by racing out to a 21-point lead at halftime and never looking back in a NFC Wild Card Playoff game at the Superdome. New Orleans struck first when QB Bobby Hebert found WR Eric Martin for a ten-yard TD pass early in the first quarter, but the Vikings answered with 24 consecutive points. The Saints scored their final points on a 40-yard FG by K Morten Andersen late in the first half. A "Hail Mary" TD pass from QB Wade Wilson to WR Hassan Jones as the second quarter ended pushed the Vikings lead to 31-10. The Saints were held without a rushing first down in the contest while only moving the chains nine times. Minnesota controlled the ball for over 41 minutes, posting 28 first downs and rushing for 210 yards in the victory.

The Saints were forced to punt with 1:51 remaining, but the return was muffed by WR Az-Zahir Hakim. FB Brian Milne recovered the loose ball to seal the win. Jackson tied an NFL Playoff record with three TD catches as part of a six-catch, 142-yard day.

SAINTS ▪ 27 PHILADELPHIA EAGLES ▪ 24

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2007) - Louisiana Superdome (70,001)

RB Deuce McAllister set a team playoff record with 143 rushing yards, leading the Saints to a come-from-behind victory over Philadelphia in the NFC Divisional Playoffs. McAllister, making his first NFL postseason appearance, rushed for one touchdown and caught another. New Orleans took the early lead after a pair of field goals, but Philadelphia struck on a 75-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter. The Saints responded with a lengthy drive capped by a four-yard TD burst by RB Reggie Bush, but the Eagles took a lead into halftime after an 80-yard touchdown drive. Philadelphia RB Brian Westbrook shook loose for a 65-yard touchdown run to open the second half, giving the Eagles a 21-13 advantage. But McAllister put the Saints ahead by capping the next two drives with a five-yard scoring run and an 11-yard touchdown reception. Philadelphia added a field goal in the final quarter, but the Saints forced a punt on the Eagles' final possession, and the offense picked up a key first down to run out the clock and preserve the victory.

CHICAGO BEARS ▪ 39 SAINTS ▪ 14

NFC Conference Championship (Jan. 21, 2007) - Soldier Field (61,817)

In the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game, after trailing 16-0 the Saints sliced the Bears' lead to two points and were behind by only four early in the fourth quarter, but four turnovers proved too difficult to overcome. A fumble led to Chicago's first field goal late in the first quarter, and another fumble on the ensuing kickoff added another three-pointer for the Bears a few minutes later. Chicago would drive for a field goal in the second quarter to go ahead 9-0 and march for a TD on its next drive to take a 16-0 lead. The Saints would get on the scoreboard when WR Marques Colston hauled in a 13-yard touchdown with 51 seconds remaining in the first half. Chicago's lead shrunk to 16-14 when RB Reggie Bush scored on an 88-yard TD early in the second half. But QB Drew Brees was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone for a safety later in the third quarter, and the Bears wore down the Saints in the fourth quarter following a pair of New Orleans turnovers and after the Saints failed to convert on two fourth-down attempts.

SEATTLE SEAHAWKS ▪ 23 SAINTS ▪ 15

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 11, 2014) - CenturyLink Field (63,388)

Held scoreless until a fourth quarter rally, New Orleans was unable to overcome a 16-0 halftime deficit to the Seahawks, who put an end to their playoff run. After New Orleans was forced into a three-and-out on the game's opening drive, Seattle took advantage of a 16-yard punt by P Thomas Morstead in windy conditions to set up a 38-yard field goal by K Steve Hauschka. Hauschka drilled another FG in the first quarter and Seattle increased their lead to 16-0 in the second quarter on a 15-yard TD run by RB Marshawn Lynch and a 26-yard FG. Following a scoreless third quarter, The Saints trimmed the deficit to 16-8 at the start of the fourth quarter on a one-yard TD run by RB Khiry Robinson followed by a two-point conversion by RB Mark Ingram. Late in the fourth quarter, a missed field goal attempt by New Orleans gave Seattle favorable field position and Lynch ran in a 31-yard TD. QB Drew Brees connected on a nine-yard TD with WR Marques Colston with 26 seconds left, but time ran out on the rally after the Saints recovered the onside kick.

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 7, 2018) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (73,186)

In the team's first playoff game in New Orleans since the 2011 season, the Saints jumped out to a 21-6 second quarter lead before holding on for the 31-26 Wild Card victory. After both teams failed to score on their first two possessions, QB Drew Brees completed an 80-yard pass to WR Ted Ginn Jr. In between two Panthers field goals, the Saints extended the lead to 21-6 on a nine-yard TD pass to TE Josh Hill and a one-yard TD run by FB Zach Line, but the Panthers got within 12 at the end of the half with a 58-yard K Graham Gano field goal. In the third quarter, the clubs traded field goals. Carolina pulled to 24-19 on a 14-yard TD pass from QB Cam Newton to TE Greg Olsen. But Brees led the Saints on a five-play, 62-yard drive with a two-yard TD run by RB Alvin Kamara. Behind 31-26, Panthers S Mike Adams picked off Brees with 1:51 left, but a sack by S Vonn Bell on fourth and 23 sealed the win.

NFC Divisional Playoff (Jan. 13, 2019) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (73,027)

Facing a defending Super Bowl champion in the postseason for the first time since 2000, the Saints knocked off the early rust of a 14-0 first quarter deficit to score 20 unanswered points for the remaining scoring in the contest. On the first play from scrimmage, a long pass attempt by QB Drew Brees intended for WR Ted Ginn Jr. was intercepted by Eagles CB Cre'Veon LeBlanc. Philadelphia QB Nick Foles then engineered a seven-play, 76-yard drive that ended with a 37-yard TD pass to WR Jordan Matthews. Philadelphia and New Orleans then traded touchdowns and K Wil Lutz drilled a 45-yard field goal with six seconds left in the first half to put the Saints within four points. In the third quarter, New Orleans pulled to a 17-14 lead on a two-yard TD pass from Brees to WR Michael Thomas on an 18-play, 92-yard drive. Behind 20-14, Foles brought the Eagles close to scoring territory late in the fourth quarter, but CB Marshon Lattimore's second interception sealed the win.

SAINTS ▪ 21 CHICAGO BEARS ▪ 9

NFC Wild Card Playoff (Jan. 10, 2021) - Mercedes-Benz Superdome (3,000)

Drew Brees threw a pair of touchdown passes to WR Michael Thomas and RB Latavius Murray and the Saints defense held the Bears to only nine points and 239 total net yards, the lowest opponent totals in the team's playoff history. The Saints led 7-3 entering the third quarter, when after forcing a punt and consumed 7:29, while driving to the Bears eight-yard line. After Murray rushed for two yards, Brees then found the running back on a six-yard touchdown to give New Orleans a 14-3 lead. After forcing a three-and-out, Brees engineered a 15-play, 64-yard drive that took 8:51 and ended with a three-yard rushing TD by RB Alvin Kamara. The Saints then forced another three-and-out and drove to the one-yard line on the next drive, where a fourth-and-one Brees dive did not reach the end zone with 2:19 left in the fourth quarter. Although Bears QB Mitchell Trubisky connected on an 19-yard touchdown to TE Jimmy Graham as time expired, the gritty effort would be enough for New Orleans to advance to the divisional round.

JIM FINKS

PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER

BORN: 8/31/27
COLLEGE: TULSA '49
PLAYER: 1949-55
GENERAL MANAGER: 1964-93
SAINTS PRESIDENT/GENERAL MANAGER: 1986-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 1995

On July 29, 1995, an illustrious career as a football administrator was capped when Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Finks' posthumous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of significant accomplishments.

Finks was named president/general manager of the Saints on January 14, 1986 by Owner Tom Benson. As Benson's first major hire since purchasing the team in 1985, Finks brought with him a portfolio of success as a player, coach, scout and administrator that had spanned 37 years in sports.

Much like his prior stints as general manager with the Minnesota Vikings and Chicago Bears, Finks' final stop would also be a success. Hiring head coach Jim Mora and picking impact players in guard/tackle Jim Dombrowski, running backs Dalton Hilliard and Rueben Mayes and linebacker Pat Swilling in his first draft, a franchise that had not achieved a winning season in 20 years logged a 12-3 mark in 1987, second-best in the NFL and go on to their first-ever playoff game. Finks' presence was apparent and recognized as he was named The Sporting News NFL Executive of the Year.

Under Finks' leadership, the Saints would continue to have success, winning their first division title in 1991 as the NFC West championship flag flew in New Orleans for the first time. However, shortly after his final draft in 1993, where he mined a future Pro Football Hall of Fame selection in tackle William Roaf, Finks would be forced to resign due to a valiant fight with lung cancer that would claim his life on May 8, 1994. Overall from 1986-92, the Saints would win 60 percent of their regular season games and enjoy a streak of six consecutive non-losing years. Over that period, only two other NFL teams had the same accomplishment.

Prior to coming to New Orleans, Finks served as general manager of the Chicago Bears from 1974-83, where he constructed one of the NFL's most dominating teams. Before his departure, Finks would acquire 19 of the 22 starters for a Bears team that compiled a 15-1 record in 1985 and crushed New England in Super Bowl XX. During his 10-year tenure in Minnesota, Finks hired then-unkown Bud Grant as head coach and the Vikings followed with a string of five NFC Central crowns and two Super Bowl appearances.

The Salem, Ill. native played quarterback at Tulsa University and was a 12th round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1949. Finks played defensive back until 1952, when he became the Steelers' starting quarterback and went to the Pro Bowl. After retiring as an NFL player following the 1955 season, he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before beginning his career as an administrator as the general manager of Calgary of the Canadian Football League in 1958.

RICKEY JACKSON
LINEBACKER

BORN: 3/20/58
COLLEGE: PITTSBURGH
NFL: 1981-95
SAINTS: 1981-93
YEAR INDUCTED: 2010

57

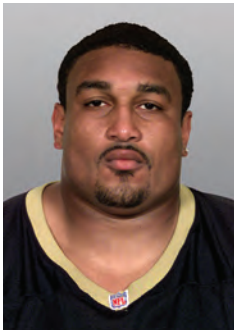
One of the most productive linebackers in National Football League history, Rickey Jackson served as the linchpin of one of the most dominant linebacker corps the league has ever seen. He became the first player to have spent the majority of his career with New Orleans to have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The Pahokee, Fla. native had an outstanding college career at Pittsburgh and was picked in the second round (51st overall) by the Saints in the 1981 NFL Draft. Jackson appeared in 227 regular season games, starting 225 during 15 NFL seasons, 13 of which were spent with the Saints. With 115 sacks as a Saint, he is the club's all-time leader. Jackson led the club in takedowns six times. He missed only two games out of a possible 229 regular season games in his career.

Jackson finished his career with 128 sacks, (his eight sacks in his rookie season of 1981 are not included since sacks did not become an official statistic until 1982) ranked tenth all-time in NFL history. He is also the franchise's all-time leader in fumble recoveries with 26.

As a show of respect by opposing coaches and players for his dominating pass rush abilities and sideline to sideline play, Jackson was named to the Pro Bowl six times (1983-86, 1992-93) in his career, tied for the third-most by a Saint. He was an All-Pro selection six times (1984-87, 1992-93). After failing to post a winning campaign in the franchise's first 18 seasons, Jackson's Saints did not have a losing season in his final seven campaigns with the club from 1987-93, qualifying for the playoffs four times during this period.

Jackson would close out his NFL career with San Francisco from 1994-95, earning a championship ring as part of the Super Bowl XXIX winners. Jackson retired as a Saint in 1996 and his number 57 jersey was raised to the rafters of the Superdome. He was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Hall of Fame in 1997 and to the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 1999. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.



WILLIAM ROAF
TACKLE

BORN: 4/18/70
COLLEGE: LOUISIANA TECH
NFL: 1993-2005
SAINTS: 1993-2001
YEAR INDUCTED: 2012

One of the most accomplished tackles in National Football League history, William Roaf was the anchor of the Saints offensive line for nine seasons. Coming out of Louisiana Tech in 1993, Roaf was picked by the Saints with the eighth overall choice in the 1993 NFL Draft.

The Pine Bluff, Ark. native was immediately inserted by head coach Jim Mora into the starting lineup at right tackle, where he would start every contest and was selected to several All-Rookie teams. The 6-5, 312-pounder moved to the left side in his second season where he was named a Pro Bowl starter and Associated Press first-team All-Pro, which would begin a 12-year stretch as one of the most dominant left tackles in NFL history.

During his nine seasons with the Saints, Roaf was named to the Pro Bowl seven consecutive times (1994-2000), the second-most appearances ever by a Saint. Following a trade to the Kansas City Chiefs in 2002, he would be selected four more times, totaling 11 total selections, tied for the most nominations by a tackle in league history with Anthony Munoz and Jonathan Ogden. He also was an eight-time AP All-Pro selection, with four selections from each club. Overall, Roaf started all 189 regular season games and three postseason contests he appeared in for the Saints and Chiefs.

Roaf received one of football's highest honors as he was named to the NFL's All-Decade teams of the 1990's and 2000's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. He was a first-team selection for the 1990's squad and a second-team choice on the 2000's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All-Decade rosters. Additionally, Roaf was named to the Saints Hall of Fame in 2008 and is a member of the Louisiana and Arkansas Sports Hall of Fames. In 2013, he was inducted into the New Orleans Saints Ring of Honor. In 2014 he was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame and in 2016 was named to the franchise's All-50th team.

MORTEN ANDERSON

KICKER

BORN: 8/19/60
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN STATE
NFL: 1982-2004, 2006-07
SAINTS: 1982-1994
YEAR INDUCTED: 2017

One of the most decorated kickers in NFL history, Andersen became only the second exclusive placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The NFL's all-time scoring leader until the 2018 season played in an NFL record 382 games during his 25-year career with five teams.

The Copenhagen, Denmark native was a Saints scoring weapon for 13 seasons after being selected by New Orleans in the 1982 NFL Draft in the fourth round (86th overall) out of Michigan State. During his Saints career, Andersen was named to the Pro Bowl four consecutive times and six-times overall (1985-88, 1990,1992) and was named a first team AP All-Pro selection five times (1985-88,1992). He finished his Saints career as the club's all-time leader in scoring with 1,318 points, in field goals made with 302 and 25 consecutive field goals made. Andersen went on to play eight seasons for the Falcons (1995-2000, 2006-07) and became Atlanta's all-time scoring leader, earning Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro selections in 1995. In the 1999 NFC Championship game, he made a game-winning kick in overtime to beat Minnesota 30-27. Andersen spent the 2001 season with the Giants, the 2002-03 campaigns with the Chiefs and the 2004 season with the Vikings.

Andersen's illustrious career would break almost every NFL kicking and scoring record. In his 25 seasons, he became the NFL's all-time leader in scoring with 2,544 points, in games played with 382 appearances, in field goals made with 565, achieved NFL records with 22 seasons with 90+ points and scored in an NFL record 360 straight games. The seven-time Pro Bowler and six-time All-Pro hit 22 game winning kicks in the final two-minutes or less, with seven of them taking place in overtime.

Andersen received one of the greatest honors in football as he was named to the NFL's All Decade teams of the 1980's and 1990's, voted on by the Pro Football Hall of Fame selection committee. The "Great Dane" was named a first-team selection for both the 1980's team and 1990's roster, making him one of only 16 players since the AFL-NFL merger to be named to two All Decade teams. Andersen is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame (2009), the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame (2011), the Saints Ring of Honor (2015) and the club's All-50th team (2016).

1967 EXPANSION DRAFT

Held Feb. 10, 1967

In what became the foundation of New Orleans' first team, the Saints selected 42 players in an expansion draft, using the same procedures as in the formation of the Atlanta Falcons in 1966. The Falcons were exempted from the expansion draft in 1967, thus leaving 14 teams from whom the Saints selected players. The procedures that were in place for the Saints were as follows: Each of the other 14 NFL teams froze 29 players from its 40-man roster, leaving 11 players available to be selected. The Saints chose one player from those 11 remaining on each team. Then, each team froze two additional players, leaving eight on each list, from which the Saints chose two more.
